House Opens Point Reyes Park Hearing

Area Supporters, Ranchers Argue Before Subcommittee

WASHINGTON — Three dairy ranchers from the Point Reyes Peninsula urged today that a proposed 53,000-acre national seashore there be reduced to 20,000 acres.

The delegation, headed by San Rafael attorney Bryan McCarthy, said plans for the park would wipe out the area's dairy industry by eliminating some dairy ranches and taking away the best dairy lands.

Opponents and supporters of the plan appeared before the House subcommittee on national parks which is holding hearings on two bills to establish the park.

McCarthy told the subcommittee that after all improvements are finished, the proposed 53,000-acre park would cost "a minimum of 50-million-dollars."

Dr. Joel Gustafson of Mill Valley, who heads a group favoring the proposal, said he could not give a cost figure but that estimates had "varied from eight million to 10 million dollars."

He was warned by Rep. Wayne N. Aspinall (D-Colo.), that the subcommittee could not justify a favorable report unless definite cost figures were available. Gustafson promised to supply them.

APPEARING IN OPPOSITION

Appearing in opposition to the proposal were Joseph Mendoza, Alfred Grossi and Mrs. Zena Mendoza Cabral, ranch owners.

Mendoza argued that the ranching area was beautiful because of the efforts of the ranchers, and that if the dairy ranches were eliminated the grassy land again would become brush.

Grossi said the beach on the west side of the proposed park was so dangerous that he would not allow his own children to play there.

Mrs. Cabral told the subcommittee that she felt it would be unjust to eliminate the ranching areas, and that ranchers would be "faced with the loss of everything they have worked for."

Bills to establish the park have been introduced in the House by Reps. Clement W. Miller and Jeffrey Cohelan, both California Democrats.

Miller called for speedy action. He said real estate developers already are moving into the area and starting what he called "substandard subdivisions." This, he said, indicates the county supervisors are unable to control development of the area through zoning.

URGES IN-LIEU PAYMENTS

Miller advocated payments in lieu of taxes to the county, the school districts and other local subdivisions to make up any tax losses. He said, however, he expects visitor accommodations and services outside the park boundary eventually will more than offset tax losses on the area to be acquired.

The peninsula, called "an island in time" by Gustafson, has been described by the National Park Service as "one of the most outstanding segments of unspoiled seashore yet remaining along the Pacific Coast."

The proposal has the full support of the National Park Service, which says the park would have great recreational value.

In a report prepared for submission to the subcommittee, parks director Conrad L. Wirth said the area has two important factors to recommend it: It's nearness to a major population center and its possibilities for swimming and boating.

"It is extremely rare for such a large unspoiled area of great natural interest to be within such easy reach of a major metropolitan area," Wirth said.

"The second locational attribute is that found in the rising attractiveness of water-related recreation," the report said.

EASY ACCESS BY HIGHWAY

The park service report called attention to easy access to the peninsula from Highway 101 and other highways in the area and said completion of routes approved for the California freeway and expressway system would make access even easier in the future.

Under the proposal, some 20,000 acres of land would be leased back to the present owners.

The ranchers scoffed at the proposal of the park service to lease what they termed "mythical ranching area" back to the dairy and cattle farmers. Mendoza said half of the lease-back area is high rough country good for deer hunting but not ranching.

Rep. Aspinall suggested a covenant which would bind the ranch owners, if they retain their property, not to sell it for purposes other than ranching in the event there should be a determination later that it is needed for recreational use of the nearby San Francisco-Oakland metropolitan population.

McCarthy said he would not consider it fair to put a price freeze on the present owners, noting that dairyland prices in California are rising.

NO SHORTAGE OF PARK LAND

McCarthy said decision should be made now whether the whole area is needed, or whether the 20,000-acre wooded tract endorsed by the Marin County Board of Supervisors would be enough. He said there is no shortage of park or undeveloped land in California. There are, he said, five federal parks and 120 to 160 state parks. In addition, he said, 50 per cent of the land in California is federally owned and most of it is undeveloped.

Although some ranch operations would be dislocated, two trans-Pacific radio receiving stations located in the area would continue operation. Oyster beds, an oyster cannery and three commercial fisheries also would be allowed to continue under national seashore status.

Plans for the national seashore call for construction of about 25 miles of new roads, campgrounds, parking facilities, picnic areas, bathhouses and docks.

Hearing on an identical bill introduced in the Senate by Senators Clair Engle (D) and Thomas H. Kuchel (R) of California is set for Tuesday before a Senate interior subcommittee headed by Sen. Alan Bible (D-Nev.).

Kennedy's Budget Signals 2 Years Of Red-Ink Financing

Congress Told Ike Estimate 'Optimistic' Over Surplus

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy broke the bad budget news to Congress today — two years of red ink financing for an apparent combined deficit of five billion dollars, sending the national debt to new records.

In a special budget message, Kennedy discarded as "over-optimistic" the January estimates of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who forecast a slim 80-million-dollar surplus this year and 1.5-billion-dollar surplus in fiscal 1962, starting July 1.

There is no surplus in the inherited Eisenhower budget for 1961, Kennedy advised Congress. It is "over two-billion" out of balance, he said. The actual estimate is 2.2-billion. It means the debt limit must be raised again, the president said.

'ROSIER ECONOMY'

The surplus heralded for fiscal 1962 has become a 1.8-billion-dollar deficit on the civilian side alone, Kennedy announced. He said the Eisenhower administration, which never admitted there was a recession, based its revenue estimate on "a much rosier economy."

Officials said Kennedy's military program, plus revised estimates of the cost of defense programs, will send the total 1962 deficit beyond three-billion-dollars and swell the public debt by mid-1962 to a record of about 290 billion.

Nowhere in this message was there the slightest indication of a possible temporary tax cut to combat the business slump.

POSTAL INCREASE

As Eisenhower had done, Kennedy asked a 843-million-dollar postal rate increase to eliminate the Post Office deficit.

The president's defense program is due to reach Congress next week. Today's 6,000-word message dealt only with civilian matters. Many paragraphs were devoted to documenting Kennedy's pledge—made in his State of the Union message——that his program would not balance the budget "of and by themselves."

The biggest increases from Eisenhower's budget asked by Kennedy were these: Agriculture Department, 478-million-dollars more; Commerce Department, 48-million, mostly for aid to depressed areas; aid to education, 500-million; aid to children of the jobless, 215-million; temporary jobless pay, 440-million; space projects, 85-million.

ROD-GUN CLUB'S BIG SHOW TO OPEN TONIGHT

Thirty-five thousand persons are expected to visit the Marin Rod and Gun Club's eighth annual Sports and Boat Show this weekend at San Rafael's Bermuda Palms, club officials predicted today.

On display for the three-day show will be latest fishing, hunting, camping and boating equipment, plus such features as the famous gun collection of Harold's Club of Reno, demonstrations in skin diving, archery and flycasting, and weight-lifting and beauty contests. "We have something of interest for every member of the family," according to co-chairmen John Marzetta and Barney DeBisschop.

Hours are 6:30 to 11 tonight, 1 to 11 p.m. tomorrow and 11 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

Assault To Kill Charged In Machete Spree

A 31-year-old San Francisco draftsman was jailed early today after allegedly trying to kill his host at a Fairfax drinking party with a machete.

Booked in the Marin County Jail for investigation of assault with intent to kill was Warner Hermann Hauffe. Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court set bail at $5,250.

Treated at Marin General for multiple cuts on head and face was William Eagle, also 31, of Forrest Terrace, Fairfax.

Hauffe told arresting officers, Capt. Henry Vonderheide and Officer James Goodwin of Fairfax police and Sgt. John Orr and Officer Andy J. Grimes of San Anselmo police, that he didn't know how Eagle got the cuts. He also was unable to explain a cut over his own eye.

Eagle's wife, who called police said she heard her husband cry out shortly after 1 a.m. Stepping into the hallway, she saw Hauffe swinging at Eagle with a machete, she said.

When the Fairfax officers arrived, they found Eagle lying on the floor, "covered with blood."

Mrs. Eagle said the machete belonged to her husband.

The officers said Hauffe, a German national, and Eagle had been drinking together last night. They had no explanation of the reason for the attack.

Hauffe, disclaiming all knowledge of what happened to his host, submitted to arresting officers without a struggle.

Girl's Slayer Due Hearing On Treatment

Clifford E. Fortner, 16, who killed a 12-year-old Kentfield girl in November of 1959, was to get a court hearing this afternoon to determine whether he should continue treatment at Langley Porter Clinic in San Francisco.

Officials from the clinic and Marin juvenile authorities were to meet with Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Superior Court at 4 p.m.

The question to be determined was whether the youth should continue treatments at the clinic or be turned over to Marin Juvenile Court. Indications were that doctors would recommend further treatment.

President Asks Nehru To Aid Laos Cease-Fire

Reported Pushing Big Arms Preparation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy appealed to India's Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru today to cooperate in arranging a cease-fire in Laos, lest the civil war there lead to a U.S.-Soviet military showdown over Southeast Asia.

Kennedy, meanwhile, was reported rushing extensive military preparations, involving warships, aircraft and landing forces, to back up further intervention in the little Southeast Asian kingdom if his peace hopes collapse.

Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, senior Republican member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said today that the Laos situation "is up in the air. What we will do will depend on what the Kremlin will do in the next 48 hours."

The 48 hours mentioned by Wiley in talking to reporters would put a much more precise time limit on action than Kennedy was willing to apply at his news conference yesterday.

NO OTHER STATEMENT

The president would not go beyond a statement that the situation, stemming from action by Soviet-backed rebels against the royal Laotian government, "becomes increasingly serious as the days go by." (See story on page 2.)

In Kennedy's view, officials said, the key man in the mounting tension is Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev. The president looked to him for a decision to accept the cease-fire.

Tending to back up Wiley's 48-hour figure was a new estimate among officials that Khrushchev might act to accept or reject a Laotian truce in the next day or so. He returned to Moscow today from a tour.

KEY FIGURE

Nehru would be a key figure if Khrushchev would accept the truce as part of a British proposal, now before him, under which the West would agree to a prompt international conference on Laos. India is a member of the International Control Commission which would have responsibility for supervising the truce; other members are Canada and Poland.

The Kennedy message was delivered by roving Ambassador W. Averell Harriman at New Delhi. Nehru said he would cooperate in any way he could.

New Red Units In Invasion

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Laotian government today charged six new Communist North Vietnamese battalions have invaded Laos. The charge came on the heels of President John F. Kennedy's appeal last night to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev for a peaceful solution of the crisis in the Southeast Asian kingdom where Communist-backed rebels are fighting Western-backed government forces.

U.S. military movements continued. The U.S. Embassy in Vientiane announced 15 helicopters from the U.S. Seventh Fleet arrived in neighboring Thailand en route to the Ameri. can aid mission supporting the royal Laotian army.

The Laotian government battered without respite since March 7 by the Soviet-supplied Pathet Lao rebels, charged that three Red North Vietnamese battalions have been thrown into an assault on Kam Keut in the narrow central section of Laos, about midway between Thailand and North Viet Nam.

The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization's military advisers, meeting in Bangkok, Thailand, issued a communique charging that Communist support of the Pathet Lao rebels has created "a dangerous situation."

It emphasized the need for continued solidarity among the eight SEATO nations to "safeguard the freedom of the peoples of non-Communist states," the communique said.

SEATO signatories have a treaty obligation for defense of Laos.

Living Cost Hits New Peak Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—Higher prices for medical care and food pushed living costs back up to a record level in February.

The Labor Department reported today its consumer price index rose one-tenth of 1 per cent to 127.5 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

This put the index back at its December level, highest point in history. It had declined a bit in January, the first drop in a year.

Besides increases in cost of medical care and food, higher prices also were reported for clothing and reading-recreation items.

HOWARD C. HARMON
New superintendent

School Chief Appointed In Kentfield

Howard C. Harmon, 43, curriculum director of the Lowell Elementary School District at La Habra, Los Angeles County, has been named superintendent of the Kentfield School District.

Harmon will replace Harold R. De Pue, who resigned to become superintendent of the Oxnard School District in Ventura County, effective July 1.

The new superintendent is expected to sign a four-year contract at the Kentfield District board meeting Monday at a beginning salary of $14,000 a year. The salary is subject to renegotiation each year.

De Pue receives $13,500. As superintendent at Oxnard he will start at $15,500.

Harmon was the first choice of the five-member board of trustees, according to Mrs. Watson Conner, board president. There were 40 applicants for the position, all of whom were screened by a professional committee made up of Dr. Theodore Reller of University of California and Dr. Thomas James of Stanford University. Six finalists for the job were interviewed in Kentfield by all five board members, Mrs. Conner said.

Harmon brings 15 years of elementary school experience to the position, 13 of them administrative. In 1945, he served for 16 months with the occupation forces in Germany. He began his teaching career the following year in the Big Bear Elementary School district in San Bernardino County.

Two years later he was named superintendent of the Morongo School District at

Jury To Invite Board To Talk On Center Row

Marin County grand jurors decided last night they would invite the county supervisors to next Thursday's meeting to ask them about the week's work stoppage on the civic center building last January.

The grand jury is investigating the work stoppage to determine whether any wrongful or imprudent act was involved.

Foreman William L. Hughes said the grand jury last night heard from the county counsel, county auditor, and the contractor and architect who are working on the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed structure. These witnesses were invited first to give the grand jurors a chronological picture of how the civic center was developed, Hughes explained.

After work had started on the civic center, the supervisors halted construction in a 3-2 vote to investigate the feasibility of converted the building into a county hospital. The two-man minority howled, and so did the public. The grand jury received letters demanding full-scale investigation.

After a week's work stoppage, the supervisors decided conversion into a hospital was not economically feasible and ordered work resumed. The contractor has submitted a $14,000 damage claim because of the work stoppage.

House Opens Point Reyes Park Hearing

Jury To Invite Board To Talk On Center Row

Marin County grand jurors decided last night they would invite the county supervisors to next Thursday's meeting to ask them about the week's work stoppage on the civic center building last January.

The grand jury is investigating the work stoppage to determine whether any wrongful or imprudent act was involved.

Foreman William L. Hughes said the grand jury last night heard from the county counsel, county auditor, and the contractor and architect who are working on the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed structure. These witnesses were invited first to give the grand jurors a chronological picture of how the civic center was developed, Hughes explained.

After work had started on the civic center, the supervisors halted construction in a 3-2 vote to investigate the feasibility of converted the building into a county hospital. The two-man minority howled, and so did the public. The grand jury received letters demanding full-scale investigation.

After a week's work stoppage, the supervisors decided conversion into a hospital was not economically feasible and ordered work resumed. The contractor has submitted a $14,000 damage claim because of the work stoppage.

Living Cost Hits New Peak Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—Higher prices for medical care and food pushed living costs back up to a record level in February.

The Labor Department reported today its consumer price index rose one-tenth of 1 per cent to 127.5 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

This put the index back at its December level, highest point in history. It had declined a bit in January, the first drop in a year.

Besides increases in cost of medical care and food, higher prices also were reported for clothing and reading-recreation items.

Kennedy Warning To Russ On Laos Backed By Allies

President Says Soviet Attitude May Determine Future Of World

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy's warning that Moscow must stop the Soviet-backed rebellion in Laos or face possible intervention drew hearty support today from U.S. allies.

The president told a news conference last night that the future course of world affairs might hinge on the Kremlin's reply to a Western plea for a truce in Laos.

There was no immediate response from Moscow to the appeal for a cease-fire delivered to the Kremlin by the British yesterday.

British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, who met with his cabinet until 1 a.m., said the United States "is the world's most powerful nation and much depends on her strength and leadership." He noted the "vigor and confidence" shown by Kennedy in the situation.

Macmillan left by plane for the West Indies preliminary to coming to Washington for talks with Kennedy on April 4. Informed sources said that if the Laos situation worsened, the prime minister would fly to Washington before then.

New Zealand Prime Minister Keith Holyoake announced he agreed with Kennedy that "a more determined and firmer attitude must be taken" in Laos.

Britain and New Zealand are members of the eight-nation Southeastern Asia Treaty Organization, which Kennedy said he was sure would honor its obligation to protect Laos.

Japanese Foreign Minister Zentaro Kosaka said in Tokyo that he welcomed Kennedy's statement that the United States would resist any takeover of Laos by Soviet-backed rebels.

Kennedy, in a conference televised and broadcast to the nation, did not disclose any details of planned action if the assault against the royal Laotian government continues.

But his statement came against a background of U.S. military movement toward the area.

He said he was certain that the American people would back him in his firm decision to support without reservations the independence and integrity of the small but strategic Asian country.

His stand drew immediate approval from congressional Democrats and Republicans. Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield said the president "laid it on the line" and he was sure the American people would support him. Senate GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen called Kennedy's statement "a good factual explanation of the existing situation."

Kennedy said plans for possible action in Laos by the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization would be considered at the annual meeting of SEATO foreign ministers which opens Monday in Bangkok.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk left for the Bangkok meeting early today after a final strategy conference with the president.

While warning Russia and Asian Communists that the United States would not shrink from action, the president emphasized anew his hope for a peaceful solution.

"I want to make it clear to the American people and to all the world that all we want in Laos is peace, not war," Kennedy said, "a truly neutral government and not a cold war pawn, a settlement concluded at the conference table and not on the battlefield."

The president said "We strongly support" the British proposal for an immediate cease-fire, supervision of the truce by a commission composed of representatives of India, Canada and Poland and, finally, a 14-nation conference to work out a long-range political solution.

Kennedy said he hoped for an early and favorable response from Russia because the Kremlin's answer "will tell us something about what kind of a future our world is going to have."

Soviet airplanes have flown more than 1,000 sorties since Dec. 13 carrying war supplies to the Communist-led Pathet Lao rebels in northern Laos, the president said, and combat specialists from Red North Viet Nam have been helping direct the rebellion.

The president set no deadline for Russia to come to terms on Laos, but he said the situation "becomes increasingly serious as the days go by" and called for an end of hostilities "as soon as possible."

The president used a revolving map composed of three eight-foot panels to demonstrate the steady Communist gains in Laos in recent months.

He said "It is quite obvious if the Communists were able to move in and dominate this country, it would endanger the security of and the peace of all southeast Asia . . . and that quite obviously affects the security of the United States."

Laos, Once Powerful, Is Now Weak But Still Vital Key In South Asia

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Laos, once called the kingdom of the million elephants, dominated its neighbors in Southeast Asia centuries ago.

Now the kingdom has shrunk to a land-locked area the size of Minnesota, and the six nations that surround it have their own ideas about the course Laotian policies should take.

Communist China and North Viet Nam want to install a Communist regime in Vientiane. South Viet Nam and Thailand, friends of the West, seek an anti-Communist government. Neutral Cambodia and Burma would feel better if Laos were neutral, too.

The Communists have been pouring in massive quantities of arms to the Pathet Lao rebels, who control the northeast. A long border with North Viet Nam and rebel-held landing strips on the Plain of Jars make this assistance easy.

Thailand charges this material aid has been supplemented in recent stages of the campaign by the outright intervention of 14 battalions of Communist Viet Minh troops.

Why are the Communists risking a showdown with the west over Laos? It has no industry, no major natural resources, and a population of only about two million, made up of a people traditionally not interested in fighting. Its territory would be a minor acquisition in terms of size or wealth.

A look at the map, however, quickly shows Laos' strategic value in the corner of Asia below Communist China.

A Communist Laos would put Red forces on two sides of South Viet Nam, which has been fighting a guerrilla war against infiltrators from the north since 1954.

It would extend Communist territory to the borders of Cambodia and would give neutral Burma another Communist neighbor.

It would also eliminate the buffer state between Thailand, staunchly anti-Communist member of the South East Asia Treaty Organization, and the Communist world.

Laos extends in the rough shape of a key into the areas of these nations, and the West considers it a key to their defense.

But even if the Soviet Union agrees to call off the outside aid that has given the rebels most of their power, the complicated Laotian internal situation will make a settlement difficult.

Many new factors have been added to the 1956 and 1957 settlements among the warring factions.

At that time, part of the patient Lao rebel force was taken into the government army, and two of its leaders were given cabinet posts. The agreement soon collapsed. Both sides accused each other of bad faith and the fighting resumed.

Now, the Pathet Lao forces control more territory than they did in 1957. They have the Plain of Jars airfields and much of the highway system leading from north Viet Nam.

With Russian aircraft available for parachute drops of food and supplies, they have a mobility of attack they never enjoyed before.

In Vientiane, there are new figures. The new prime minister, Prince Boun Oum, and his defense chief, Brig. Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, are less willing to negotiate with the Pathet Lao than their neutralist predecessors.

On the other side is Capt. Kong Le, the young paratrooper captain who staged the August, 1960, coup that touched off the renewed fighting. Kong Le is believed to have been an independent force at the time of the coup, but he since has gone into the ranks of the Communists.

Laos has been compared to Korea because the United States and its allies may have to risk war to prevent its loss to the Communists.

SLEEPING OFF FETE

Most Laotians Unaware Of President's Speech

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Residents of the capital of Laos slept off a night of celebrating today, mostly unaware of President John F. Kennedy's warning that the Communist menace to their country is critical.

Yesterday was a day of parades, foot racing, dancing, movies and moonlight swimming in celebration of the 11th birthday of the royal Laotian Army.

Perhaps not more than 100 persons in the entire country knew that Kennedy had proclaimed, to the American people and the world, the growing concern over Communist military advances in Laos.

But Premier Prince Boum Oum today praised Kennedy for tough stand on the Southeast Asian crisis.

Boun said his government would be grateful for increased U. S. military aid, especially longer-range weapons, and predicted his government would defeat the Communist Pathet Lao rebels.

It was 7:30 a.m. Friday here when Kennedy concluded his serious talk to Americans in a TV appearance from the White House. But nobody here knew anything about it. It was a quiet, peaceful morning with most of the population sleeping late after the celebration.

Probably half the people in this administrative capital drank too much in the gay festival in which everyone took a holiday. Even the Communist Pathet Lao forces took the day off, according to reports reaching foreign military observers.

Talks Slated On U.S. Plan For Africans

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—The United States delegation scheduled private talks with African U.N. members today to determine the best way to start an American-proposed development program for Africa.

U.S. diplomats hoped to get favorable reaction from the various African states on Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson's suggestion that they begin a vast economic improvement plan with help from other members of the U.N.

CLOSED SESSION

The African bloc met in closed session last night to discuss the proposal. Stevenson made it in the General Assembly's political committee yesterday. The committee set up another meeting this morning to continue debate on the recommendations.

Further discussion of the Congo crisis was scheduled in the general assembly this afternoon. The Congo debate was recessed to enable the delegations to study the Congo conciliation commission's report.

A U.S. spokesman said the next step on the American proposal for Africa was to ascertain in detail what the African states wanted and needed to get started on a development program.

PLEDGES SUPPORT

Stevenson pledged in his broad outline of the proposal that the Kennedy administration was prepared to support "wholeheartedly" African efforts to proceed towards independence and self-sufficiency free to the cold war.

But he stressed that the United States wants the Africans themselves to assume responsibility for a long-range program "so that it will be clear to all of the world that is by, of and for Africa."

Nigerian delegate Jaja Wachuku said he would prefer to have the United States present a concrete dollars-and-cents plan for Africa.

It would also eliminate the buffer state between Thailand, staunchly anti-Communist member of the South East Asia Treaty Organization, and the Communist world.

Laos extends in the rough shape of a key into the areas of these nations, and the West considers it a key to their defense.

But even if the Soviet Union agrees to call off the outside aid that has given the rebels most of their power, the complicated Laotian internal situation will make a settlement difficult.

Many new factors have been added to the 1956 and 1957 settlements among the warring factions.

At that time, part of the patient Lao rebel force was taken into the government army, and two of its leaders were given cabinet posts. The agreement soon collapsed. Both sides accused each other of bad faith and the fighting resumed.

Now, the Pathet Lao forces control more territory than they did in 1957. They have the Plain of Jars airfields and much of the highway system leading from north Viet Nam.

With Russian aircraft available for parachute drops of food and supplies, they have a mobility of attack they never enjoyed before.

In Vientiane, there are new figures. The new prime minister, Prince Boun Oum, and his defense chief, Brig. Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, are less willing to negotiate with the Pathet Lao than their neutralist predecessors.

On the other side is Capt. Kong Le, the young paratrooper captain who staged the August, 1960, coup that touched off the renewed fighting. Kong Le is believed to have been an independent force at the time of the coup, but he since has gone into the ranks of the Communists.

Laos has been compared to Korea because the United States and its allies may have to risk war to prevent its loss to the Communists.

SLEEPING OFF FETE

Most Laotians Unaware Of President's Speech

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Residents of the capital of Laos slept off a night of celebrating today, mostly unaware of President John F. Kennedy's warning that the Communist menace to their country is critical.

Yesterday was a day of parades, foot racing, dancing, movies and moonlight swimming in celebration of the 11th birthday of the royal Laotian Army.

Perhaps not more than 100 persons in the entire country knew that Kennedy had proclaimed, to the American people and the world, the growing concern over Communist military advances in Laos.

But Premier Prince Boum Oum today praised Kennedy for tough stand on the Southeast Asian crisis.

Boun said his government would be grateful for increased U. S. military aid, especially longer-range weapons, and predicted his government would defeat the Communist Pathet Lao rebels.

It was 7:30 a.m. Friday here when Kennedy concluded his serious talk to Americans in a TV appearance from the White House. But nobody here knew anything about it. It was a quiet, peaceful morning with most of the population sleeping late after the celebration.

Probably half the people in this administrative capital drank too much in the gay festival in which everyone took a holiday. Even the Communist Pathet Lao forces took the day off, according to reports reaching foreign military observers.

DEMO LEADERS PUSH FOR WAGE LAW VOTE

Party Hopes To Get Enough Support For Passage Of Compromise Measure

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Democratic leadership today sought to lure enough votes away from a conservative coalition to get House approval of a compromise minimum wage bill that still falls short of President John F. Kennedy's proposal.

The newest entry in the minimum wage sweepstakes was designed to increase the $1-an-hour rate by 15 cents within four months and to $1.25 after two years. It would extend coverage to an additional 3.8 million workers.

Kennedy and some of his aides still were hoping to find enough voting strength to pass his original bill—calling for a $1.25 wage rate after two years for workers now covered—and additional coverage for 4.3 million new workers.

But the president's legislative lieutenants in the House worked out the compromise in the belief they might get it approved while the broader measure might fail in view of the strength of a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats.

Both sides were forecasting victory when a vote comes. But both also were working hard behind the scenes to corral votes.

The compromise measure, worked out in a conference among Kennedy's aides in Congress and the administration, was introduced yesterday by Rep. Carl Albert, (D-Okla).

It would limit coverage for the 3.8 million new workers protected by the wage floor to $1 an hour and provide no requirement for overtime after 40 hours worked in a week.

Kennedy Doesn't Like War Fete Discrimination

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President John F. Kennedy said last night he can't leave the Civil War centennial celebration like it is—segregated.

Kennedy was asked at his news conference what he intended to do about the Civil War Centennial Commission's decision that it has no authority to provide hotel rooms for Negroes attending its meetings in the south.

The situation arose when it was reported that Mrs. Madeline A. Williams of East Orange, N. J., a Negro, wouldn't be allowed to stay in the same hotel with other delegates from New Jersey at Charleston, S. C., meeting.

Kennedy said last night that the commission is sustained by federal funds and is a federal body.

"It is my strong belief that any program of this kind in which the United States is engaged should provide facilities and meeting places which do not discriminate on the ground of race or color," he declared.

The president said he had received the commission's reply, and would "see if we can work out a solution which recognizes the principal that I have just enunciated, because we cannot leave the situation as it is today."

Record Two-Thirds Of Industry Areas Have Dip In Jobs

San Francisco, Oakland Put On List In Report By U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today that a record two-thirds of all the major industrial areas in the nation are now experiencing substantial unemployment. San Francisco and Oakland are included.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said 25 more such areas have been added to the list of labor markets in which 6 per cent of the local work force is without jobs.

The additions include such large centers as Chicago, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Seattle, Syracuse, New Orleans, Miami and Boston.

At the same time the Labor Department's latest survey of job conditions in 150 major industrial areas showed that employers expect a hiring pickup from now to mid-May. The rise was forecast to be largely seasonal but to produce gains somewhat larger than in the corersponding months of the 1958 recession.

This was the one bright spot in the otherwise gloomy spring outlook. Employers in 9 out of 10 of the areas expect at least some job gains between March and May.

Goldberg reported that of the 150 major industrial areas the number experiencing 6 per cent or more employment—regarded by the government as "substantial"—grew from 76 in January to 101 in March.

This is the highest such total on record. The peak in the 1958 recession was 89 areas so classified.

Other major areas newly rated as having substantial unemployment include Fresno, San Jose and Stockton; New Haven, Conn.; Wilmington, Del.; Tampa-St. Petersburg, Fla.; Rockford, Ill.; Wichita, Kan.; Kalamazoo, Lansing and Saginaw, Mich.; Manchester, N.H.; Tulsa, Okla.; and Kenosha and Racine, Wis.

A separate listing of smaller areas having substantial unemployment exceeding 6 per cent increased during the January-March period from 152 to 184.

Not a single area covered by the study showed job improvement. Some that had already been classed in the hard-hit category last January were shifted to ratings indicating even heavier unemployment.

Kennedy Signs Jobless Pay Aid Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy today signed legislation providing additional unemployment insurance payments for as much as 13 weeks for jobless workers who have exhausted their benefits. Payments now can start in 15 days.

The measure had been tagged the No. 1 bill, for quickest action, of the Kennedy administration. It was the first specific anti-recession measure enacted by the new Congress. Legislative action was completed Wednesday.

The administration estimates the benefits may go to some three million persons and amount in all to nearly one billion dollars during the two-year authorized life of the program.

Persons who exhaust their basic benefits under the state-federal unempoyment insurance system during the two years starting last July 1 are eligible to benefit from the new law.

The actual total of payments under the bill will depend on the course of the national economy during the coming months—on how many long-term unemployed there are.

Groundbreaking Rites Held For New Corte Madera Store

Groundbreaking ceremonies for Smith's, men's and boy's chain clothing store, were held today at the Corte Madera Shopping Center.

The $175,000 building is scheduled to open in September. It will be constructed of wood frame and stucco, with 10,000 square feet of space, including a mezzanine. Entrances will be on the Mall and Madera Boulevard.

Smith's has stores in Oakland, Hayward, Walnut Creek, Berkeley, Richmond and Redwood City. Four more stores are to be opened this year, in addition to that in Corte Madera, president Harold B. Smith said.

The Corte Madera store will handle quality, nationally advertised men's and boy's wear, it was announced.

The building will be owned by the Madera Gardens Development Co., owners-developers of the Corte Madera Shopping Center, and will be constructed by Clovis Construction Co. of San Francisco. It was designed by John S. Bolles.

The third generation of the Smith family is now operating the stores, the original of which was long known in Oakland as Money-Back Smith.

First vessel to unload at a regular pier in the San Francisco Bay was the brig Belfast, which docked in 1848.

Eisenhower Endorses Kennedy Stand On Laos

PALM SPRINGS (UPI) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower today gave his personal endorsement to President John F. Kennedy's firm stand on the Laos crisis, and said he believed his successor had made clear this nation "is not going to be pushed around."

In a press conference on the putting green of Tamarisk Country Club, the former chief executive said he had talked with Kennedy by telephone this morning.

Eisenhower said his understanding of Kennedy's statement on Laos at yesterday's press conference was in keeping with that of his own administration on the importance of living up to this nation's commitments.

It was Eisenhower's first statement on foreign policy since he left office.

Eisenhower stressed his belief that the full measure of responsibility for such major policy decisions rests with the president and that it would be improper to suggest any course without full knowledge of the facts.

But, Eisenhower said, he believed Kennedy's stand followed that of the United States since World War II. He said the nation sincerely desired peace and its government took an approach that was "conciliatory but firm."

Eisenhower said that the Laos crisis had been so much in his mind and that of the current president that "we discussed it in the car on the way to the inauguration."

"There has been no change in the United States foreign policy," he said. He added he believed Kennedy's administration was ready to live up to its collective agreements and treaty obligations to maintain the free world.

Although a spokesman indicated earlier Eisenhower probably would talk about Laos this morning, the former president said he had no set statement ready to release. But he said Kennedy had telephoned him this morning after reading reports that Eisenhower was planning to say something and wanted to know whether it would relate to the Laotian crisis.

Thinking Ahead

LOUISVILLE, Ky (AP)—A seminary instructor asked the class to suggest new names to replace the title Southern Baptist Convention.

One student offered this one: The Solar Baptist Convention. He explained: "This name would allow the Baptists to expand throughout the solar system. It would certainly indicate to earthlings that the Baptists are thinking ahead."

Spy Charge Against Russ Is Dismissed

CHICAGO (UPI)—A U.S. district judge, acting on the recommendation of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, today dismissed an espionage charge against Soviet employee Igor Melekh and a co-defendant, provided Melekh leaves the United States by April 17.

Melekh, 47, and German-born Willie Hirsch, 42, were scheduled to make a plea in arraignment before U.S. Dist. Judge Edwin A. Robson today.

Instead, the court heard Robert Tieken, U.S. district attorney, and his assistant, Albert F. Manion, explain that they had received a communication from Kennedy on the case.

Kennedy, they said, acting after conferences with the State Department, said that the national foreign policies and the domestic situation would best be served if the court would grant the dismissal order.

Robson said that although it was discretionary with the court to act, since the request came before the plea in arraignment was made he would go along with it.

Melekh and Hirsch were arrested in New York Oct. 27. A federal grand jury here had indicted them on charges they had sought military maps and pictures of various portions of Chicago as an aid to military planning.

Melekh challenged the jurisdiction of the court and claimed diplomatic immunity. He said that his status required that he be tried before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Easter Buying Speedup Noted

NEW YORK (AP)—Stepped-up Easter buying in the week ended Wednesday pushed retail trade moderately ahead of a year ago, Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., reported today.

However, said the statistical agency, many merchants were a little disappointed that the increase wasn't larger because a year ago at this time Easter shopping wasn't in full swing.

Dollar volume on the Pacific Coast varied from unchanged to a 4 per cent decline from comparable 1960 levels.

MOCK CAPSULE SUCCESSFUL RIDE IN SPACE

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Redstone missile carrying a dummy man-in-space capsule was launched successfully today in a test of the rocket's readiness to hurl aloft a human astronaut.

The success could help clear the way for an American to take a brief suborbital rocket ride into space within six weeks.

The 83-foot Redstone thundered away from its launch pad at 12:30 p.m. It climbed to an altitude of 100 miles, then plunged into the Atlantic 300 miles downrange.

Russ Delegate Breaks Silence At Arms Meet

GENEVA (UPI) — The Soviet delegate broke his long silence in the three-power nuclear weapons tests ban conference today, but only to play an old refrain.

Semyon Tsarapkin had remained utterly silent inside the conference since an hour-long speech Tuesday. But the United States and Britain managed to flush him from cover for a moment at today's 56-minute-long 277th meeting of the prolonged conference.

British Minister of State David Ormsby-Gore started today's session with an expression of hope that the Soviets "will play a full and constructive part in the conference.

Tsarapkin countered by repeating earlier questions concerning the length of a moratorium it is proposed be placed on small underground nuclear tests which cannot yet be detected.

Drake Junior Advances In Speaking Contest

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin R. Hughes of 245 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo.

Mary will compete in subdistrict finals May 6 at Hoberg's, Lake County. She represents the Fairfax Lions Club.

Theme of the contest is "Our National Heritage, Pattern For Today."

Record Two-Thirds Of Industry Areas Have Dip In Jobs

San Francisco, Oakland Put On List In Report By U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today that a record two-thirds of all the major industrial areas in the nation are now experiencing substantial unemployment. San Francisco and Oakland are included.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said 25 more such areas have been added to the list of labor markets in which 6 per cent of the local work force is without jobs.

The additions include such large centers as Chicago, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Seattle, Syracuse, New Orleans, Miami and Boston.

At the same time the Labor Department's latest survey of job conditions in 150 major industrial areas showed that employers expect a hiring pickup from now to mid-May. The rise was forecast to be largely seasonal but to produce gains somewhat larger than in the corersponding months of the 1958 recession.

This was the one bright spot in the otherwise gloomy spring outlook. Employers in 9 out of 10 of the areas expect at least some job gains between March and May.

Goldberg reported that of the 150 major industrial areas the number experiencing 6 per cent or more employment—regarded by the government as "substantial"—grew from 76 in January to 101 in March.

This is the highest such total on record. The peak in the 1958 recession was 89 areas so classified.

Other major areas newly rated as having substantial unemployment include Fresno, San Jose and Stockton; New Haven, Conn.; Wilmington, Del.; Tampa-St. Petersburg, Fla.; Rockford, Ill.; Wichita, Kan.; Kalamazoo, Lansing and Saginaw, Mich.; Manchester, N.H.; Tulsa, Okla.; and Kenosha and Racine, Wis.

A separate listing of smaller areas having substantial unemployment exceeding 6 per cent increased during the January-March period from 152 to 184.

Not a single area covered by the study showed job improvement. Some that had already been classed in the hard-hit category last January were shifted to ratings indicating even heavier unemployment.

Kennedy Signs Jobless Pay Aid Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy today signed legislation providing additional unemployment insurance payments for as much as 13 weeks for jobless workers who have exhausted their benefits. Payments now can start in 15 days.

The measure had been tagged the No. 1 bill, for quickest action, of the Kennedy administration. It was the first specific anti-recession measure enacted by the new Congress. Legislative action was completed Wednesday.

The administration estimates the benefits may go to some three million persons and amount in all to nearly one billion dollars during the two-year authorized life of the program.

Persons who exhaust their basic benefits under the state-federal unempoyment insurance system during the two years starting last July 1 are eligible to benefit from the new law.

The actual total of payments under the bill will depend on the course of the national economy during the coming months—on how many long-term unemployed there are.

Groundbreaking Rites Held For New Corte Madera Store

Groundbreaking ceremonies for Smith's, men's and boy's chain clothing store, were held today at the Corte Madera Shopping Center.

The $175,000 building is scheduled to open in September. It will be constructed of wood frame and stucco, with 10,000 square feet of space, including a mezzanine. Entrances will be on the Mall and Madera Boulevard.

Smith's has stores in Oakland, Hayward, Walnut Creek, Berkeley, Richmond and Redwood City. Four more stores are to be opened this year, in addition to that in Corte Madera, president Harold B. Smith said.

The Corte Madera store will handle quality, nationally advertised men's and boy's wear, it was announced.

The building will be owned by the Madera Gardens Development Co., owners-developers of the Corte Madera Shopping Center, and will be constructed by Clovis Construction Co. of San Francisco. It was designed by John S. Bolles.

The third generation of the Smith family is now operating the stores, the original of which was long known in Oakland as Money-Back Smith.

First vessel to unload at a regular pier in the San Francisco Bay was the brig Belfast, which docked in 1848.

Eizabeth Taylor poses in a London clinic for her first photo since her recent illness. She plans to fly to New York Monday and spend the night there before going on to Hollywood. Eisenhower Endorses Kennedy Stand On Laos

PALM SPRINGS (UPI) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower today gave his personal endorsement to President John F. Kennedy's firm stand on the Laos crisis, and said he believed his successor had made clear this nation "is not going to be pushed around."

In a press conference on the putting green of Tamarisk Country Club, the former chief executive said he had talked with Kennedy by telephone this morning.

Eisenhower said his understanding of Kennedy's statement on Laos at yesterday's press conference was in keeping with that of his own administration on the importance of living up to this nation's commitments.

It was Eisenhower's first statement on foreign policy since he left office.

Eisenhower stressed his belief that the full measure of responsibility for such major policy decisions rests with the president and that it would be improper to suggest any course without full knowledge of the facts.

But, Eisenhower said, he believed Kennedy's stand followed that of the United States since World War II. He said the nation sincerely desired peace and its government took an approach that was "conciliatory but firm."

Eisenhower said that the Laos crisis had been so much in his mind and that of the current president that "we discussed it in the car on the way to the inauguration."

"There has been no change in the United States foreign policy," he said. He added he believed Kennedy's administration was ready to live up to its collective agreements and treaty obligations to maintain the free world.

Although a spokesman indicated earlier Eisenhower probably would talk about Laos this morning, the former president said he had no set statement ready to release. But he said Kennedy had telephoned him this morning after reading reports that Eisenhower was planning to say something and wanted to know whether it would relate to the Laotian crisis.

Thinking Ahead

LOUISVILLE, Ky (AP)—A seminary instructor asked the class to suggest new names to replace the title Southern Baptist Convention.

One student offered this one: The Solar Baptist Convention. He explained: "This name would allow the Baptists to expand throughout the solar system. It would certainly indicate to earthlings that the Baptists are thinking ahead."

Spy Charge Against Russ Is Dismissed

CHICAGO (UPI)—A U.S. district judge, acting on the recommendation of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, today dismissed an espionage charge against Soviet employee Igor Melekh and a co-defendant, provided Melekh leaves the United States by April 17.

Melekh, 47, and German-born Willie Hirsch, 42, were scheduled to make a plea in arraignment before U.S. Dist. Judge Edwin A. Robson today.

Instead, the court heard Robert Tieken, U.S. district attorney, and his assistant, Albert F. Manion, explain that they had received a communication from Kennedy on the case.

Kennedy, they said, acting after conferences with the State Department, said that the national foreign policies and the domestic situation would best be served if the court would grant the dismissal order.

Robson said that although it was discretionary with the court to act, since the request came before the plea in arraignment was made he would go along with it.

Melekh and Hirsch were arrested in New York Oct. 27. A federal grand jury here had indicted them on charges they had sought military maps and pictures of various portions of Chicago as an aid to military planning.

Melekh challenged the jurisdiction of the court and claimed diplomatic immunity. He said that his status required that he be tried before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Easter Buying Speedup Noted

NEW YORK (AP)—Stepped-up Easter buying in the week ended Wednesday pushed retail trade moderately ahead of a year ago, Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., reported today.

However, said the statistical agency, many merchants were a little disappointed that the increase wasn't larger because a year ago at this time Easter shopping wasn't in full swing.

Dollar volume on the Pacific Coast varied from unchanged to a 4 per cent decline from comparable 1960 levels.

MOCK CAPSULE SUCCESSFUL RIDE IN SPACE

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Redstone missile carrying a dummy man-in-space capsule was launched successfully today in a test of the rocket's readiness to hurl aloft a human astronaut.

The success could help clear the way for an American to take a brief suborbital rocket ride into space within six weeks.

The 83-foot Redstone thundered away from its launch pad at 12:30 p.m. It climbed to an altitude of 100 miles, then plunged into the Atlantic 300 miles downrange.

Russ Delegate Breaks Silence At Arms Meet

GENEVA (UPI) — The Soviet delegate broke his long silence in the three-power nuclear weapons tests ban conference today, but only to play an old refrain.

Semyon Tsarapkin had remained utterly silent inside the conference since an hour-long speech Tuesday. But the United States and Britain managed to flush him from cover for a moment at today's 56-minute-long 277th meeting of the prolonged conference.

British Minister of State David Ormsby-Gore started today's session with an expression of hope that the Soviets "will play a full and constructive part in the conference.

Tsarapkin countered by repeating earlier questions concerning the length of a moratorium it is proposed be placed on small underground nuclear tests which cannot yet be detected.

Drake Junior Advances In Speaking Contest

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin R. Hughes of 245 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo.

Mary will compete in subdistrict finals May 6 at Hoberg's, Lake County. She represents the Fairfax Lions Club.

Theme of the contest is "Our National Heritage, Pattern For Today."

Another Tam Student Gets 'Envoy' Post

A seventh Tamalpais Union High School District student has been named by the Experiment in International Living to go abroad this summer as a "school ambassador."

She is 17-year-old Lee Goldblatt, Tamalpais high senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goldblatt of 432 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley.

Miss Goldblatt, who will go to Sweden, was added to the list of travelers when a recent rummage sale in Mill Valley, sponsored by the Experiment, raised over $1,400. The money, which will pay partial expenses of all three Tamalpais High School students, enabled the organization to add a seventh student to the roster.

The young experimenter is a member of the Tamalpais High honor society, senior class council and girls' service club.

Convicted Check Passer Faints, Sentence Delayed

Harold Lee Burr, 28, of Ross Street, San Rafael, fainted in Municipal Court late yesterday while being sentenced for passing bad checks in San Anselmo stores last winter.

Judge Harold J. Haley recessed court for a few minutes while court attaches helped revive the defendant. The judge then postponed the start of Burr's jail term until next Tuesday night.

Burr must serve 60 days in jail, with work furlough privileges, and was placed on 18 months' supervised probation. The judge ordered him to pay a $105 fine and make restitution for all worthless checks he has passed. If he violates probation, he must serve six months in jail.

San Anselmo police arrested him on Jan. 5 for passing $30 checks at several food stores during October, November and December.

Man, 34, Jailed In Narcotic Case

John J. Meehan, 34, no local address, last night was charged with possessions of narcotics by San Rafael police.

Meehan was arrested on the complaint of Ida M. Hill, manager of the Travelers Inn at Third and Tamalpais Avenue. She complained to police that someone was asleep in a bathtub at the hotel.

Police booked Meehan for drunk, vagrancy and having nembutal in his possession. Amount of bail was not set, pending arraignment in municipal court.

The parents flew to Memphis yesterday and were reunited with their daughter in the psychiatric ward at a Memphis hospital.

Twelve members of Explorer Post 48, Tiburon, will leave tomorrow for a week-long course in survival techniques at Stead Air Force Base, Nevada.

The course will emphasize training as instructors in the basic scouting skills for survival techniques.

To meet expenses for the trip, post members have washed cars, done yard work and odd jobs. Average age of the group is 15.

Accompanying the scouts will advisor Ted McMillan and Ralph Parent of Troop 14, Woodacre.

Easter Brunch Is A Tradition At Larkspur's Blue Rock Inn

Easter brunch has been traditional at the Blue Rock Inn, Larkspur, for more years than I can remember and this year will be no exception with Bob Hosmer.

It starts at 10 a.m. and carries on to 1:30 p.m. Easter Sunday dinner begins at 3 p.m.

We can't see ahead on the weather, but the roaring fireplace is sure to be a comfortable backdrop for a gin fizz, eggs with hash-brown potatoes, honey and biscuits — or whatever else you like for such an occasion.

Blue Rock is one of those places that never seem to change, but this is an attraction for people who relish the assurance of uniformity of food and atmosphere.

There's plenty on the menu for brunch or dinner by way of variety, but it's nice to know that your favorite selection will be the same the next time you call.

LA PETITE AUBERGE is fortunate to have as its new maitre d', Pierre Grigaut of Mill Valley, replacing Marcel Bombard, who is no longer with the restaurant. Grigaut has been with Trader Vic's in San Francisco for the past four years. He was three years with the Pump Room in Chicago before then and previously with the French Line.

The little (that's wrong—it's grown up now) French spot at Fourth and Tamalpais, San Rafael has been doing a flourishing business since its remodeling.

WE HEAR that Gordon Jones of Rubini's in Fairfax is planning a series of talks for special luncheon or banquet groups interested in the "Artful Preparation of Foods."

If he can relate it as well as he can create it, and if you will heed as well as you'll feed, your group should be doubly blessed. It might even turn out an artist or two.

Gordon puts in a lot of homework in his own kitchen as well as at the restaurant; acts as his own guinea pig with the help of sundry visitors whose only complaint is that their mothers were never able to cook like that.

MUSIC now at Pinky's Pizza Parlor and Pub, Larkspur, is being provided Friday and Saturday nights from 9 p.m. by Sue Dunn of San Anselmo.

Sue, who has a player-piano style on the 88 notes and lives at a place known as 88 Crooked Avenue, can pound out rhythm or handle the quiet tunes with equal facility, without taking a rest between notes.

Patrons at Pinky's seem to like her manner with old-time favorites.

LIKELY to be a popular gathering place for the sporting world is Scotto's Buffet that opened yesterday at 535 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

Whether by way of hunger or curiosity over Bennie Ford's ability to turn out authentic Italian lasagne, it will be worth a visit to find out for yourself if he's as good as he is at promoting fights and matchmaking.

Bennie is only doing the Italian dishes. Chef Tex Trent prepares the rest of the menu—hot sandwiches and a la carte.

Open Mondays through Saturdays from 10 a.m.

HERBERT'S SHERBET SHOPPE on the Belvedere Boardwalk is open again and is being run by Bill and Agnes Baldy of Daly City, who commute every day except Monday to keep it open from 7:30 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Lunches, home made pies and, of course, Herbert's ice cream are the fare.

THE RANCH HOUSE in San Anselmo, closed temporarily for a face-lifting which Wes Martin says has turned into a major operation, probably won't be ready to do business again until about April 7.

Principal remodeling in progress will result in the kitchen being separated from the dining room and the counter shortened.

Bill Duthie who gave up running the Coffee Office in San Anselmo about a year ago will be the new restaurant manager for Martin.

PETE LIND of Pete's Pier 15 will be handling the catering for the new Racquet Club in San Rafael when it opens early next month.

He'll be operating the snack bar, and dinners and lunches for special parties.

APOLOGIES are due Earl Harkins of El Paseo Restaurant in Mill Valley for a misstatement of his extra-curricular activities.

His weekends are spent cuisining for the San Francisco Yacht Club—not the St. Francis Yacht Club.

The former is in Belvedere; the latter is in San Francisco—and must bear the loss.

TE QUIERO MUCHO. Young students of Spanish have taken to visiting Ramona's Mexican restaurant in San Rafael from time to time after school to brush up on their pronunciation, verbs and participles. But one call for assistance by telephone has topped all others.

"I am writing a letter," the girl explained in hasty confidence. "Tell me, please—how do I say, 'I love you?' "

Strikebreakers Bill Flounders

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A labor supported bill to ban professional strikebreakers in California remained before the legislature despite Republican attempts to banish it for at least two years.

Seven Democrats on the Assembly Industrial Relations Committee voted against four Republicans last night to send the measure to a subcommittee for likely redrafting. The subcommittee was ordered to report in three weeks.

But action on the bill this session remained in doubt as the Democrats admitted that the bill might still require the two-year interim committee investigation asked by Republicans.

The measure, by Assemblyman Philip A. Burton (D-San Francisco) would:

Prohibit employers from hiring or contracting for professional strikebreakers; prohibit anyone from working as a professional strikebreaker; prohibit anyone from recruiting professional strikebreakers, and prohibit advertising for a labor supply without mentioning a current strike in the advertisement.

Bill Against Subversives Dead

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill to forbid tax exemptions to subversives was dead today because its author, Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo) failed to appear in a committee to defend it.

The bill was scheduled to be heard yesterday afternoon by the assembly revenue and taxation committee.

Chairman Charles Wilson D-Los Angeles) noticed that Francis was not present and exploded: "This is the second time we have set this bill for a hearing. I'm going to put it in the bottom of the box and he is going to have a hard time getting it out of this committee."

Jacqueline Goddard, secretary for Francis, said the lawmaker was "out in his district investigating."

Tougher Law On Narcotics Survives Test

SACRAMENTO (AP) — It's almost dead certain that tougher penalties against narcotics violators will come out of the 1961 California Legislature.

A test vote in the Senate yesterday showed strong support for legislation calling for longer prison terms. The Assembly already has passed a similar bill.

Both versions, however, contain a no-probation provision which conflicts with a key recommendation in Gov. Edmund G. Brown's narcotics program.

The governor favors continuing the discretionary power of trial judges to grant probation to first offenders.

The Senate voted 26-12 to restore terms to a bill by Sen. Edwin J. Regan (D-Weaverville) which would deny probation to anyone convicted for the first time of selling narcotics to a minor.

This would mean 10 years to life in state prison; parole would be possible only after five years.

The Senate and Assembly bills would permit probation in other first offense cases not involving minors. But, said Regan:

"No case can be made for an adult who would sell a hard narcotic to a minor."

Sen. James A. Cobey (D-Merced), opposing the amendment, said it would nullify the purpose of the bill.

"Bad as it may be," he said, "what we're after is convictions. If we get convictions, we get an effective deterrent."

Cobey declared Michigan tried the no-probation approach and got a 3.3 per cent rate of conviction. He said his position was supported by all 102 Superior Court judges in Los Angeles County.

Marinite Pledged

Robert A. DeGraff, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. DeGraff of 24 Gloria Drive, San Rafael, has pledged to Delta Upsilon fraternity at University of Oregon in Eugene.

GAS CHAMBER DELAY COST CRITICIZED

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A senator says California should eliminate "unnecessary" and costly delays in executing persons sentenced to the gas chamber at San Quentin Prison.

Sen. John C. Begovich (D-Jackson) said yesterday he has readied a bill that would automatically set executions the day following the expiration of stays or reprieves.

He said now courts must set the new days—resulting in delay and added costs.

Bill Hitting 10 Per Centers Gets Boost

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Bills intended to hit at "10 per centers" by reducing the need for second trust deeds on houses were approved yesterday night by an Assembly Finance and Insurance subcommittee. They now go to the full committee.

The measures by Assemblyman Richard T. Hanna (D-Garden Grove) would allow certain regulated lenders to loan up to 90 per cent of market value on one, two, three, or four-family residences; and allow certain stock insurance companies to insure the top 20 per cent of the loan.

At present, a home buyer can usually get a loan up to only 70 per cent of the value of the house, and since he usually has not got 30 per cent cash, he must turn to second trust deeds for the balance.

B. J. Zimmerman, president of the Mortgage Refinance Co. of Los Angeles, opposed provisions of the bill which would limit issuance of the 90 per cent loans to banks, savings and loan companies, and insurance companies.

He also said mutual companies should be allowed to participate in the mortgage guaranty provisions.

Proponents of the plan called it "conservative," "modest," and said "it won't solve everybody's problems."

Soak-The-Rich Bill On Schools Rejected

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An Assembly education group has recommended against a county-wide school tax measure designed to force rich school districts to help their poorer neighbors.

The subcommittee of the Assembly Education Committee voted yesterday for a two-year study of the bill by Assemblyman Gordon Winton Jr. (D-Merced). Winton said he hoped the full committee would overrule the subcommittee.

The measure was designed to raise property taxes in rich districts which would free about 21 million dollars in state aid for increasing the general level of education in all schools. It would set a county-wide tax of 60 cents per $100 assessed valuation for elementary schools and another 50 cents for high schools.

Some districts with high assessed valuation and few children pay less than that now.

Assemblyman Carlos Bee (D-Hayward), a high school teacher, said he doesn't think the state is ready to embark on such a program now.

Assembly Gets Contracts Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Legislation which its sponsor says would save cities and counties "hundreds of millions of dollars annually" on equipment and supply purchases was introduced today.

The author, Assemblyman Ronald Brooks Cameron (D-Whittier), said the measure would make the state a clearing house for city and county purchasing agents seeking bargains. It would request bidders on state equipment and supplies contracts to indicate if they would extend the same price to local governments and assessment districts.

Road Radar Plan Again Voted Down

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly Transportation and Commerce Committee has voted for the second time against allowing the use of radar to catch highway speeders.

The 7-5 vote yesterday was on a bill allowing both radar and almost-unmarked California Highway Patrol cars.

The committee last week rejected a separate bill on radar by Assemblyman Frank Belotti (R-Eureka). Belotti then amended radar into his unmarked car bill.

It wasn't clear whether the committee would have voted against unmarked cars if the radar issue had not been inserted.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown backs an 18-month test of both radar and patrol cars that look like any other car except for white door panels with the CHP insignia.

Also on the traffic safety front, Sen. Samuel Geddes (D-Napa) proposed automatic 15-day suspension of the driver's license of any person convicted twice of speeding.

The measure, by Assemblyman Philip A. Burton (D-San Francisco) would:

Prohibit employers from hiring or contracting for professional strikebreakers; prohibit anyone from working as a professional strikebreaker; prohibit anyone from recruiting professional strikebreakers, and prohibit advertising for a labor supply without mentioning a current strike in the advertisement.

Bill Against Subversives Dead

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill to forbid tax exemptions to subversives was dead today because its author, Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo) failed to appear in a committee to defend it.

The bill was scheduled to be heard yesterday afternoon by the assembly revenue and taxation committee.

Chairman Charles Wilson D-Los Angeles) noticed that Francis was not present and exploded: "This is the second time we have set this bill for a hearing. I'm going to put it in the bottom of the box and he is going to have a hard time getting it out of this committee."

Jacqueline Goddard, secretary for Francis, said the lawmaker was "out in his district investigating."

Tougher Law On Narcotics Survives Test

SACRAMENTO (AP) — It's almost dead certain that tougher penalties against narcotics violators will come out of the 1961 California Legislature.

A test vote in the Senate yesterday showed strong support for legislation calling for longer prison terms. The Assembly already has passed a similar bill.

Both versions, however, contain a no-probation provision which conflicts with a key recommendation in Gov. Edmund G. Brown's narcotics program.

The governor favors continuing the discretionary power of trial judges to grant probation to first offenders.

The Senate voted 26-12 to restore terms to a bill by Sen. Edwin J. Regan (D-Weaverville) which would deny probation to anyone convicted for the first time of selling narcotics to a minor.

This would mean 10 years to life in state prison; parole would be possible only after five years.

The Senate and Assembly bills would permit probation in other first offense cases not involving minors. But, said Regan:

"No case can be made for an adult who would sell a hard narcotic to a minor."

Sen. James A. Cobey (D-Mercéd), opposing the amendment, said it would nullify the purpose of the bill.

"Bad as it may be," he said, "what we're after is convictions. If we get convictions, we get an effective deterrent."

Cobey declared Michigan tried the no-probation approach and got a 3.3 per cent rate of conviction. He said his position was supported by all 102 Superior Court judges in Los Angeles County.

GAS CHAMBER DELAY COST CRITICIZED

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A senator says California should eliminate "unnecessary" and costly delays in executing persons sentenced to the gas chamber at San Quentin Prison.

Sen. John C. Begovich (D-Jackson) said yesterday he has readied a bill that would automatically set executions the day following the expiration of stays or reprieves.

He said now courts must set the new days—resulting in delay and added costs.

Bill Hitting 10 Per Centers Gets Boost

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Bills intended to hit at "10 per centers" by reducing the need for second trust deeds on houses were approved yesterday night by an Assembly Finance and Insurance subcommittee. They now go to the full committee.

The measures by Assemblyman Richard T. Hanna (D-Garden Grove) would allow certain regulated lenders to loan up to 90 per cent of market value on one, two, three, or four-family residences; and allow certain stock insurance companies to insure the top 20 per cent of the loan.

At present, a home buyer can usually get a loan up to only 70 per cent of the value of the house, and since he usually has not got 30 per cent cash, he must turn to second trust deeds for the balance.

B. J. Zimmerman, president of the Mortgage Refinance Co. of Los Angeles, opposed provisions of the bill which would limit issuance of the 90 per cent loans to banks, savings and loan companies, and insurance companies.

He also said mutual companies should be allowed to participate in the mortgage guaranty provisions.

Proponents of the plan called it "conservative," "modest," and said "it won't solve everybody's problems."

Soak-The-Rich Bill On Schools Rejected

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An Assembly education group has recommended against a county-wide school tax measure designed to force rich school districts to help their poorer neighbors.

The subcommittee of the Assembly Education Committee voted yesterday for a two-year study of the bill by Assemblyman Gordon Winton Jr. (D-Merced). Winton said he hoped the full committee would overrule the subcommittee.

The measure was designed to raise property taxes in rich districts which would free about 21 million dollars in state aid for increasing the general level of education in all schools. It would set a county-wide tax of 60 cents per $100 assessed valuation for elementary schools and another 50 cents for high schools.

Some districts with high assessed valuation and few children pay less than that now.

Assemblyman Carlos Bee (D-Hayward), a high school teacher, said he doesn't think the state is ready to embark on such a program now.

Assembly Gets Contracts Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Legislation which its sponsor says would save cities and counties "hundreds of millions of dollars annually" on equipment and supply purchases was introduced today.

The author, Assemblyman Ronald Brooks Cameron (D-Whittier), said the measure would make the state a clearing house for city and county purchasing agents seeking bargains. It would request bidders on state equipment and supplies contracts to indicate if they would extend the same price to local governments and assessment districts.

Road Radar Plan Again Voted Down

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly Transportation and Commerce Committee has voted for the second time against allowing the use of radar to catch highway speeders.

The 7-5 vote yesterday was on a bill allowing both radar and almost-unmarked California Highway Patrol cars.

The committee last week rejected a separate bill on radar by Assemblyman Frank Belotti (R-Eureka). Belotti then amended radar into his unmarked car bill.

It wasn't clear whether the committee would have voted against unmarked cars if the radar issue had not been inserted.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown backs an 18-month test of both radar and patrol cars that look like any other car except for white door panels with the CHP insignia.

Also on the traffic safety front, Sen. Samuel Geddes (D-Napa) proposed automatic 15-day suspension of the driver's license of any person convicted twice of speeding.

Regional Control Drubbed

The proposed Bay Area regional planning district came in for some caustic remarks at a special meeting of the San Rafael Planning Commission yesterday afternoon.

Although the subject was not on the agenda, chairman Pat Hetherton asked Richard Stockwell, assistant city manager of Concord and former Concord planner, what he thought of the idea.

Heatherton pointed out that some things like rapid transit, air pollution, freeway location and other problems, affecting the whole area, are too big for one city to decide.

"I would like to see a central agency take in all the problems of the Bay Area counties," Stockwell said.

"Wouldn't we be creating another big octopus whose arms would encircle us all sooner or later?" asked Commissioner Carl Brown.

"One thing that must be decided very soon is how much land can be filled and who gets it," Hetherton said. "Local agencies should get the first chance at it before the Army Corps of Engineers steps in."

"I don't believe in putting taxing power in the hands of someone out of your control," said Commissioner Orlando Conti.

Stockwell said he would like to see something similar to the association of Bay Area Cities rather than a district with the power to tax, even if that power was limited.

"You'd just be setting up more bureaucracy to take control," Brown said.

The first dwelling unit ever constructed by a white man in San Francisco was erected by Capt. William A. Richardson, the city's first portmaster.

MARIN SCHOOLS OUT FOR EASTER VACATION

Some 32,000 public school children in Marin County this afternoon joyously greeted Easter vacation.

Pupils at Catholic schools will join in the vacation later. Dominican College will have its Easter recess from next Wednesday through April 4. Parochial schools and Marin Catholic High School will close next Thursday and resume April 5.

Shortest vacation will be at Three-R School in San Rafael, next Wednesday through April 2. Latest will be at Katharine Branson School in Ross, which will close next Thursday noon and remain closed through April 9.

$258,000 Low Bid Put In For Mt. Tam Radar Tower

An apparent low bid of $258,920 has been submitted by Electro Steel Structures, Inc., jointly with Western Erectors, Inc., both of Rialto, San Bernardino County, on construction of a two-story radar tower at the Mount Tamalpais Air Force Station.

This announcement today by the Army Corps of Engineers in San Francisco. Bids were opened yesterday. The government estimate had been $253,488.

Four higher bidders were: Irwin Trout and Summers, San Francisco, $265,652; Hart and Hyding, South San Francisco, $267,308; Imperial Pacific Co., San Leandro, $285,000; Edward W. Scott Electric Co., San Francisco, $302,942.

All bids are now being audited, an abstract will be made up and when this is returned to the contract division a contract will be awarded.

Construction time to be allowed is 270 calendar days.

The two-story tower is to be of structural steel framing with metal siding and composite metal and concrete floors and roofs. Included in the contract will be electrical, water, steam and sewer services with bituminous road surface and other connected work.

Planners Will Prepare Trailer Park Ordinance

After hearing three reports on trailer parks at a special meeting yesterday afternoon, the San Rafael Planning Commission decided to go ahead drafting a trailer park ordinance to be submitted to the city council.

San Rafael has prohibited trailer parks in the past, except allowing two areas for them as an emergency during World War II, city planner Donald Newmark said.

Paul R. Rogers, district representative of the State Division of Housing in charge of trailer courts, outlined the state's trailer regulations. He urged the city to adopt the state code, as have many cities and counties in California.

Orlando Conti, commission member and plumber, asked Rogers if the state plumbing code applied to trailer courts. Rogers assured him that it was covered in the appendix.

"Then you've just lost yourself a customer," Conti said, voicing his objections to allowing the use of clay pipe outside of building sites.

"The city may adopt its own code," Rogers told Conti, "but the state will not release its authority. This will make for a duplication in all inspection in the construction of the trailer park."

Rogers explained that if the city adopts the state code on trailer parks, the state will allow the city to do the policing. It is unlike the building code, in which the state has no jurisdiction.

Richard Stockwell, assistant manager of the City of Concord, took exception to Rogers' wanting the state code adopted uniformly. He urged the City of San Rafael to draw up its own trailer ordinance.

"The state code is set up for a minimum all over the state of California. We found that parts of it did not fit the needs of Concord. I'm sure that you will find the same thing in San Rafael," Stockwell said.

Commissioner Carl Brown, urged that the commission go ahead preparing such an ordinance.

Brown Wants To Halt Increase In Gas Rates

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown called today for federal legislation to halt the almost automatic increases in natural gas rates to California consumers.

The governor noted that the State Public Utilities Commission has just approved a 4.8-milion-dollar boost in gas rates by Pacific Gas and Electric Co., but said the PUC's hands are tied.

Under present law, he said, applications for pipeline companies for a raise in their wholesale prices go into effect if the Federal Power Commission takes no action within five months.

Brown told his news conference that three or four such applications have stacked up in the FPC since 1958, and the state PUC can do no more than pass on the increases to California users.

The requests, he said, involved 230 million dollars for California consumers alone.

The governor urged California congressmen to support two bills intended to halt the automatic increases.

One bill would prohibit a raise in wholesale rates as long as a prior application is pending. The other would prevent pipeline companies from modifying earlier contracts.

Brown said he hoped his schedule would permit him to go back to Washington to testify in behalf of the legislation.

Turning to developmnets in the state legislature, the governor reiterated his belief that judges should have discretionary power to grant probation to first offenders in narcotics cases.

But he said he didn't want to quibble with action of the Senate in approving amendments to a narcotics penalty bill which would rule out probation in first offense cases involving sale of hard narcotics to minors. (See story on page 6.)

Brown said he was interested primarily in a substantial strengthening of narcotics laws. In practice, he said, it would take exceptional circumstances to justify probation for those who peddle narcotics to youngsters.

Fatter Budgets For Post Office, Treasury Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Appropriations Committee today approved fatter budgets for the Treasury and Post Office Departments but coupled it with a call for more economy.

In a report to the House pointing up the need for economies, the committee said interest on the national debt now runs more than the total cost of federal government in 1936.

The committee recommended an appropriation of $5,281,865,000 for the Treasury and Post Office Departments and the U.S. Tax Court in the 12 months starting July 1. This was $89,936,000 less than was requested but $438,731,000 more than the agencies got for the current fiscal year.

Cost Rise Seen For San Rafael Recreation

Recreation in San Rafael may cost the taxpayers approximately $19,000 more next year, according to the preliminary budget adopted yesterday afternoon by the park and recreation commission.

The proposed budget calls for an expenditure of $72,851 for recreation next year. This year's budget was $53,783.

Proposed additions are: Operation of another swimming pool at Terra Linda High School, $6,874; staffing of the program in the Freitas Annexation, $1,728; increased program in San Quentin and Santa Venetia areas, $2,000, and sponsorship of the learn-to-swim program at San Rafael and Terra Linda High Schools, $3,320.

"Normal salary increases and higher cost of supplies and materials accounts for the rest of the higher budget," said Joseph Rodota, director of parks and recreation.

The recreation department expects to realize $3,000 from registration fees ($1 each) for the learn-to-swim program and $6,000 from admission fees at San Rafael and Terra Linda High School swimming pools. Fees will be the same as charged last year at the San Rafael High pool.

The commission turned down a request by the Little League and Pony League that the recreation department pay for umpiring games. This, said commissioners, might constitute spending public money for a private agency.

The preliminary budget for parks is $65,100, which is $4,000 lower than this year.

The preliminary budget will be sent to the city manager before April 1, according to Rodota. It wil then go to the city council and the school board. In the past, the schools have assumed about 25 per cent of the budget, Rodota said.

Runaway, 15, Found With Truck Driver

A 15-year-old San Anselmo girl, who apparently ran away from home March 3, was picked up in Monterey County yesterday with a 29-year-old unemployed truck driver.

Her companion, Louis R. Joseph, was arrested and transferred to Marin County where he was booked for investigation of statutory rape, contributing to the delinquency of a minor and violation of probation. San Anselmo Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said Joseph lists no address, but grew up in San Rafael.

The girl was placed in the Marin County juvenile hall.

An all-points bulletin was sent out for the missing girl after she had fled her home. She was seen in Sand City, Monterey County, but was not there when sheriff's officers arrived Wednesday evening.

Upon questioning the relatives of Joseph, where the pair had stayed in Sand City, sheriff's officers found they had moved to Castroville. They were picked up at the home of some more relatives of Joseph in Castroville just after midnight.

The girl told San Anselmo police she had stayed in San Rafael at the home of a friend until March 13. She said she met Joseph on that date and went to Monterey County with him the next day.

In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the District on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the District. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the District by mail upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by any successful bidder.

No-Litigation: There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of the District or the title of the officers to their respective offices, and the District will furnish to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of delivery of said bonds.

Brown Wants To Halt Increase In Gas Rates

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown called today for federal legislation to halt the almost automatic increases in natural gas rates to California consumers.

The governor noted that the State Public Utilities Commission has just approved a 4.8-milion-dollar boost in gas rates by Pacific Gas and Electric Co., but said the PUC's hands are tied.

Under present law, he said, applications for pipeline companies for a raise in their wholesale prices go into effect if the Federal Power Commission takes no action within five months.

Brown told his news conference that three or four such applications have stacked up in the FPC since 1958, and the state PUC can do no more than pass on the increases to California users.

The requests, he said, involved 230 million dollars for California consumers alone.

The governor urged California congressmen to support two bills intended to halt the automatic increases.

One bill would prohibit a raise in wholesale rates as long as a prior application is pending. The other would prevent pipeline companies from modifying earlier contracts.

Brown said he hoped his schedule would permit him to go back to Washington to testify in behalf of the legislation.

Turning to developmnets in the state legislature, the governor reiterated his belief that judges should have discretionary power to grant probation to first offenders in narcotics cases.

But he said he didn't want to quibble with action of the Senate in approving amendments to a narcotics penalty bill which would rule out probation in first offense cases involving sale of hard narcotics to minors. (See story on page 6.)

Brown said he was interested primarily in a substantial strengthening of narcotics laws. In practice, he said, it would take exceptional circumstances to justify probation for those who peddle narcotics to youngsters.

Fatter Budgets For Post Office, Treasury Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Appropriations Committee today approved fatter budgets for the Treasury and Post Office Departments but coupled it with a call for more economy.

In a report to the House pointing up the need for economies, the committee said interest on the national debt now runs more than the total cost of federal government in 1936.

The committee recommended an appropriation of $5,281,865,000 for the Treasury and Post Office Departments and the U.S. Tax Court in the 12 months starting July 1. This was $89,936,000 less than was requested but $438,731,000 more than the agencies got for the current fiscal year.

Cost Rise Seen For San Rafael Recreation

Recreation in San Rafael may cost the taxpayers approximately $19,000 more next year, according to the preliminary budget adopted yesterday afternoon by the park and recreation commission.

The proposed budget calls for an expenditure of $72,851 for recreation next year. This year's budget was $53,783.

Proposed additions are: Operation of another swimming pool at Terra Linda High School, $6,874; staffing of the program in the Freitas Annexation, $1,728; increased program in San Quentin and Santa Venetia areas, $2,000, and sponsorship of the learn-to-swim program at San Rafael and Terra Linda High Schools, $3,320.

"Normal salary increases and higher cost of supplies and materials accounts for the rest of the higher budget," said Joseph Rodota, director of parks and recreation.

The recreation department expects to realize $3,000 from registration fees ($1 each) for the learn-to-swim program and $6,000 from admission fees at San Rafael and Terra Linda High School swimming pools. Fees will be the same as charged last year at the San Rafael High pool.

The commission turned down a request by the Little League and Pony League that the recreation department pay for umpiring games. This, said commissioners, might constitute spending public money for a private agency.

The preliminary budget for parks is $65,100, which is $4,000 lower than this year.

The preliminary budget will be sent to the city manager before April 1, according to Rodota. It wil then go to the city council and the school board. In the past, the schools have assumed about 25 per cent of the budget, Rodota said.

Runaway, 15, Found With Truck Driver

A 15-year-old San Anselmo girl, who apparently ran away from home March 3, was picked up in Monterey County yesterday with a 29-year-old unemployed truck driver.

Her companion, Louis R. Joseph, was arrested and transferred to Marin County where he was booked for investigation of statutory rape, contributing to the delinquency of a minor and violation of probation. San Anselmo Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said Joseph lists no address, but grew up in San Rafael.

The girl was placed in the Marin County juvenile hall.

An all-points bulletin was sent out for the missing girl after she had fled her home. She was seen in Sand City, Monterey County, but was not there when sheriff's officers arrived Wednesday evening.

Upon questioning the relatives of Joseph, where the pair had stayed in Sand City, sheriff's officers found they had moved to Castroville. They were picked up at the home of some more relatives of Joseph in Castroville just after midnight.

The girl told San Anselmo police she had stayed in San Rafael at the home of a friend until March 13. She said she met Joseph on that date and went to Monterey County with him the next day.

Highest Bid: The bonds will be awarded to the highest bidder considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the District would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to their respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the District. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed between the dates aforesaid on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the District.

Right of Rejection: The District reserves the right, in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

Prompt Award: The Board of Directors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for the receipt of proposals unless such time of award is waived by the successful bidder.

Prompt Delivery: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the Depositary of the District, in San Rafael, California, as soon as the bonds can be prepared, but not prior to the date of the bonds.

Right of Cancellation: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the District shall fail to execute said bonds and tender the same for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

Form of Bid: All bids must be for not less than all of the Series D Bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Each bid, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Directors of Marin Municipal Water District and endorsed "Proposal for Marin Municipal Water District 1957 Improvement Bonds, Series D".

Bid Check: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $10,000 drawn on a bank or trust company authorized to transact and transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the Treasurer of Marin Municipal Water District, to secure the District from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the District on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the District. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the District by mail upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by any successful bidder.

No-Litigation: There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of the District or the title of the officers to their respective offices, and the District will furnish to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of delivery of said bonds.

Official Statement: The District has prepared an official statement relating to the District and to the bonds, copies of which will be furnished to any interested bidder upon request.

School Hopefuls Poke At, Praise San Rafael System

By WAT TAKESHITA

The San Rafael school system underwent a critical analysis last night from seven school board candidates, whose descriptions of the system ranged from "excellent" to "almost completely demoralized."

The candidates expounded their views at a lively public meeting sponsored by the San Pedro School Parent-Teacher Assn. Moderator was Mrs. Charles Greene.

An audience of about 70 attended.

Dr. Dallas L. Wagner, Dr. Victor Kagan and Charles Greene intercepted the questions for presentation to the panel of candidates.

Here are brief views of the seven:

BELLA AARON, attorney—After years of "progressive" teaching, today's children are the result. "We must not let it remain in the hands of professional educators." Schools need more solid, academic subjects and less like "Understanding Myself," "Our Bodies Grow Up," or "Looking Toward the Future." High schools give 90 to 110 electives. Students and even parents cannot always make wise choices of electives. Why not require more fundamental subjects like math and languages?

JOSEPH ALBANESE, insurance agent and former school board member — "All is not well in the San Rafael school system." There is a serious disciplinary problem, and morale among teachers has broken down. The blame lies squarely at the top of the administration. Cost of building some of the schools is extravagant.

JOHN M. BAGSHAW, supervisor of data processing for a San Francisco coffee firm—"I don't think there is anything wrong with the San Rafael school system. I think it's terrific." There may be areas where improvements might be made. The district will have to seek state aid to meet needs of more schools. An accounting and business background is useful in observing and analyzing the managerial policies of the school district.

BEN F. PETRINI, accountant and attorney — The duty of teachers and administrators is to provide teaching and work out policies in cooperation with the school board. The duty of the school board is to provide facilities for the expanding school population. Teachers should be given a higher standard and best possible tools with which to work.

LOTHAR SALIN, printer — "Education is the transformation of an abstract concept — knowledge—into concrete reality in the minds of our children." Knowledge is not restricted to the ability to make a living but includes the ability to appreciate life. Classes where children "mark time" should be eliminated. However, the present system should not be torn down; it should be improved and supplemented. Give children challenging courses, and they won't be bored. They are capable of much more than we give them credit for.

HOWARD SIMON, with executive office staff of Standard Oil Co.—"I have no ax to grind with the present administration. I am not an expert in education or in the building of schools. But I do have a sincere interest in community life." Children are the greatest asset for the future of the nation.

H. DAVID SOKOLOFF, architect—We need a "continuum program," with courses coordinated between elementary and high schools for the whole district. Students are bored if they have to take courses they have already had. For discipline, we need a simple code of behavior, adopted uniformly by all teachers. We cannot have two kinds of discipline, different in various schools. An atmosphere of trust and cooperation among teachers, parents and children can be created.

Here are a few of the topics discussed during the question and answer period:

Mrs. Aaron on languages: "San Rafael is the only district where no language is taught below the high school." In the ninth and tenth grades come "exploratory language." Exploring should have been done in lower grades.

Bagshaw on unification: The Dixie district should become a part of San Rafael. Eventually, three or four school districts in the county should be sufficient.

How to keep teachers' morale high: Albanese — Put the administrators on a salary schedule. "I think it is unprofessional for them to have to negotiate for a salary." Last year, the administrators got a "whopping increase," but there was no money for the teachers. The superintendent should back up their principals, and principals their teachers.

Sokoloff—Teachers will feel happier if they feel appreciated. Teachers should be given as much leeway as possible, with support from the administration.

On trade schools: Bagshaw—Doubt the need for a separate trade school. Mrs. Aaron—"I disagree. . . The auto shop was shut off, most likely because of lack of money. . . It probably went for exploratory language." Salin—Don't like to see a complete division between trade and academic schools. Sokoloff — A comprehensive high school probably provides better education. Bagshaw — Woodwork and shop require top teachers. But the best get better pay in industry. If we can get only inferior teachers, perhaps we are better off without woodwork and shop. Petrini—Perhaps the district as a whole can hire top teachers instead of each individual school.

On curriculum: Sokoloff — The board sets up an overall program. The matter of emphasis within that framework is a problem of the educators. Petini—Curriculum is the job of the educator.

Freshman orientation: Aaron —It is a waste of time and money, which can be better used for languages and other subjects. Sokoloff—Freshman orientation ought to be given another look. Go slowly; don't chop it up. It may be able to furnish something to the student. Albanese—There is a lot of time wasted in that type of course. Urge review the Stanford Report of 1953 and supplement it. Salin—No one seems to say anything nice about freshman orientation. However, don't lump all cultural subjects in that category. There is a place for cultural subjects like music and art. If a student gets too much of the cultural subjects, that is the job of the counselor to handle.

Simon — Parents and P-TA groups should attend more school board meetings. Board members may not be completely aware of the problems in schools.

School Hopefuls Poke At, Praise San Rafael System

By WAT TAKESHITA

The San Rafael school system underwent a critical analysis last night from seven school board candidates, whose descriptions of the system ranged from "excellent" to "almost completely demoralized."

The candidates expounded their views at a lively public meeting sponsored by the San Pedro School Parent-Teacher Assn. Moderator was Mrs. Charles Greene.

An audience of about 70 attended.

Dr. Dallas L. Wagner, Dr. Victor Kagan and Charles Greene intercepted the questions for presentation to the panel of candidates.

Here are brief views of the seven:

BELLA AARON, attorney—After years of "progressive" teaching, today's children are the result. "We must not let it remain in the hands of professional educators." Schools need more solid, academic subjects and less like "Understanding Myself," "Our Bodies Grow Up," or "Looking Toward the Future." High schools give 90 to 110 electives. Students and even parents cannot always make wise choices of electives. Why not require more fundamental subjects like math and languages?

JOSEPH ALBANESE, insurance agent and former school board member — "All is not well in the San Rafael school system." There is a serious disciplinary problem, and morale among teachers has broken down. The blame lies squarely at the top of the administration. Cost of building some of the schools is extravagant.

JOHN M. BAGSHAW, supervisor of data processing for a San Francisco coffee firm—"I don't think there is anything wrong with the San Rafael school system. I think it's terrific." There may be areas where improvements might be made. The district will have to seek state aid to meet needs of more schools. An accounting and business background is useful in observing and analyzing the managerial policies of the school district.

BEN F. PETRINI, accountant and attorney — The duty of teachers and administrators is to provide teaching and work out policies in cooperation with the school board. The duty of the school board is to provide facilities for the expanding school population. Teachers should be given a higher standard and best possible tools with which to work.

LOTHAR SALIN, printer — "Education is the transformation of an abstract concept — knowledge—into concrete reality in the minds of our children." Knowledge is not restricted to the ability to make a living but includes the ability to appreciate life. Classes where children "mark time" should be eliminated. However, the present system should not be torn down; it should be improved and supplemented. Give children challenging courses, and they won't be bored. They are capable of much more than we give them credit for.

HOWARD SIMON, with executive office staff of Standard Oil Co.—"I have no ax to grind with the present administration. I am not an expert in education or in the building of schools. But I do have a sincere interest in community life." Children are the greatest asset for the future of the nation.

H. DAVID SOKOLOFF, architect—We need a "continuum program," with courses coordinated between elementary and high schools for the whole district. Students are bored if they have to take courses they have already had. For discipline, we need a simple code of behavior, adopted uniformly by all teachers. We cannot have two kinds of discipline, different in various schools. An atmosphere of trust and cooperation among teachers, parents and children can be created.

Here are a few of the topics discussed during the question and answer period:

Mrs. Aaron on languages: "San Rafael is the only district where no language is taught below the high school." In the ninth and tenth grades come "exploratory language." Exploring should have been done in lower grades.

Bagshaw on unification: The Dixie district should become a part of San Rafael. Eventually, three or four school districts in the county should be sufficient.

How to keep teachers' morale high: Albanese — Put the administrators on a salary schedule. "I think it is unprofessional for them to have to negotiate for a salary." Last year, the administrators got a "whopping increase," but there was no money for the teachers. The superintendent should back up their principals, and principals their teachers.

Sokoloff—Teachers will feel happier if they feel appreciated. Teachers should be given as much leeway as possible, with support from the administration.

On trade schools: Bagshaw—Doubt the need for a separate trade school. Mrs. Aaron—"I disagree. . . The auto shop was shut off, most likely because of lack of money. . . It probably went for exploratory language." Salin—Don't like to see a complete division between trade and academic schools. Sokoloff — A comprehensive high school probably provides better education. Bagshaw — Woodwork and shop require top teachers. But the best get better pay in industry. If we can get only inferior teachers, perhaps we are better off without woodwork and shop. Petrini—Perhaps the district as a whole can hire top teachers instead of each individual school.

On curriculum: Sokoloff — The board sets up an overall program. The matter of emphasis within that framework is a problem of the educators. Petini—Curriculum is the job of the educator.

Freshman orientation: Aaron —It is a waste of time and money, which can be better used for languages and other subjects. Sokoloff—Freshman orientation ought to be given another look. Go slowly; don't chop it up. It may be able to furnish something to the student. Albanese—There is a lot of time wasted in that type of course. Urge review the Stanford Report of 1953 and supplement it. Salin—No one seems to say anything nice about freshman orientation. However, don't lump all cultural subjects in that category. There is a place for cultural subjects like music and art. If a student gets too much of the cultural subjects, that is the job of the counselor to handle.

Simon — Parents and P-TA groups should attend more school board meetings. Board members may not be completely aware of the problems in schools.

The De Ponte ranch lies to the south of Redwood Creek and Frank's Valley. The property is part of the acquisition proposed and approved by the State Park Commission in January, 1960.

Radio Corp. of America and Muir Beach Community Services District have easements in the area.

He is married and the father of two sons, 18 and 15, and two daughters, 13 and 9.

Marin City Unit Takes No. Action

No action was taken by a committee of the Marin City Tenants Council last night, which met in Marin City to look into forming a cooperative to handle the purchase and management of proposed housing.

It was decided that more information was needed from a public hearing being held this afternoon at the community lounge when the redevelopment agency met to sign a contract with developer James H. Scheuer for Marin City redevelopment.

Tam Girl, 15, Returns Home

A 15-year-old Tamalpais High School girl, missing from Mill Valley since Wednesday, returned home yesterday, sheriff's deputies reported.

The girl is Carol Lee Falvey Willat of 12 Sky Road. Her uncle, I. A. Willat of Mill Valley, went to San Francisco to search for her yesterday and found her with two men at 18th and Valencia Streets, he told Deputy Sheriff William N. McKillop.

The case was turned over to Inspector Harvey Teague of the sheriff's juvenile bureau.

Theft From Car

William A. Henderson of 105 La Brea Way, Santa Venetia, yesterday reported to San Rafael police that the rear license plate, license plate light and left side view mirror were taken from his car between 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. Wednesday while it was parked at the Country Club Bowl.

Marin City Board Sets Up Advisers For Recreation

The board of the Marin City Community Services District last night established a 20-man recreation advisory committee.

Committee members are to be chosen later, according to Vice Chairman Jesse E. Berry.

The board will interview applicants for summer recreation director at 7 p.m., April 5, probably at the community lounge. The position is a paid one.

The board accepted the resignation of director H. C. Jeffery, who is planning to move out of the community. Jeffery, whose resignation will be effective April 1, has been with the district for three years.

Louis Albright, executive director of the Marin County Young Men's Christian Assn., described the YMCA program and its plans in Marin City.

Hub Firehouse To Be Dedicated

San Anselmo's new $50,000 firehouse on Butterfield Road will be dedicated at a public ceremony at 1:30 p. m. Sunday.

A luncheon for honored guests will be held at the firehouse at noon, preceding the dedication ceremony.

The city's second fire station, located at Butterfield Road and Arroyo Avenue, was built by Joseph Filippo. Architects were Malone and Hooper of San Francisco.

The new firehouse is large enough to house four engines, a maintenance work shop, dormitory with eight beds, a day room, locker room, and washrooms.

Teacher Taking Puerto Rico Job

Dr. George Sugarman of Sausalito, teacher of management in the adult education division at College of Marin, has taken the position as director of the management center of the Inter-American University of Puerto Rico.

He will leave April 1 with his wife, Lillian. The Sugarmans reside at 195 San Carlos Avenue.

Dr. Sugarman, a management consultant, lived in Puerto Rico from 1945 to 1947 when he was general staff liaison officer to the Joint Chiefs of Staff of the Caribbean in the Air Transport Command. The Sugarmans own a 300-year-old fortress at Barbados, West Indies.

Wedding Rings Lost

The loss of a $1660 wedding ring set was reported yesterday to the San Rafael police by Mrs. Larry Friedman of 23 Las Casas Drive. Mrs. Friedman set a valuation of $1414 on the diamond ring and $246 on the wedding band. The rings disappeared from her home sometime between Feb. 26 and March 18, she said.

'Sounding Board' Story In Error

In reporting the "Marin Sounding Board" program yesterday, the Independent-Journal erred in reporting that candidate Edward B. Hayden was the only one of three who advocated passage of a $500,000 school bond issue.

Candidate Don Jones also said he favored the bonds. Candidate William L. Clark said he also favors the bond issue.

DOG CHARLIE FOUND DEAD BY TRACKS

Sausalito school children and commuters will miss Charlie Brown. He won't be around in the mornings to see them off to work and school any more.

Charlie, a 4-year-old Bassett hound owned by Tom Mathews of 148 Harrison Street, has become a well known town character since his puppyhood in Sausalito.

He was found dead yesterday beside the tracks near the Northwestern Pacific Railroad station. His owners, on a ski trip in the Sierra, won't get the sad news until their return.

Dark's Puzzle: Who Gets Trimmed?

MESA, Ariz. (AP)—This was a rough day for Alvin Dark, rookie manager of the San Francisco Giants. He must start trimming his squad tonight.

The Giants clobbered the Los Angeles Angels 13-4 at Palm Springs yesterday and the Giants' 19 hits didn't make Dark's selection chore easier.

Two big, hard hitting rookies, catcher John Orsino and outfielder-first baseman Bob Farley — helped their cause with solid clouting.

Orsino got 3-for-5, including a double and three runs batted in. When Dark notes from the Giants' 1960 statistics that his veteran catchers, Bob Schmidt and Hobie Landrith, knocked in but 57 runs between 'em, the new skipper has to do some real pondering.

Orsino is tough on defense too. Ask Ted Kluszewski, sometimes called the strongest man in baseball. Big Klu tried to score from second on a single, ran into Orsino at the plate and was knocked on his reputation. He was called out.

Farley took over at first base after one of Willie McCovey's finest days. McCovey had gone three for four with a 400-foot home run, a 380-foot triple, a sharp single and four runs knocked in.

That's a tough act to follow but Farley, a determined fellow up from Tacoma, went two for two, including a homer of his own.

Don Blasingame, having problems at second base because of a sensational rookie named Charlie Hiller, banged out three hits.

Orlando Cepeda, who now appears to be the right fielder, got three for three. And Harvey Kuenn, who is rapping doubles as though he doesn't know what it's like to stop at first base, got two more.

Sam Jones went five easy innings for the victory. He gave up four hits, three walks and three runs and whiffed five Angels. Stu Miller allowed two hits and one run over the last four innings.

Jack Sanford was slated to pitch against the Cubs here.

Dark, Jansen Show Concern Over Slow Progress Of Pitching Staff

HANLEY

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Regardless of the outwardly calm attitude Alvin Dark and Larry Jansen are displaying in connection with the slow progress of the 1961 Giant mound staff, the new manager and his pitching coach are more than a trifle concerned.

Neither, of course, has expressed alarm. But the fact that they are concerned is not difficult to detect. Dark, for instance, in discussing his southpaw ace, Mike McCormick, said "he will have to begin getting someone out Sunday and most certainly next Thursday when he pitches again."

Neither McCormick nor Dark were alarmed by the pounding Mike absorbed last Sunday in Tucson when the Cleveland Indians hammered the National League's ERA champ for 12 runs on 12 hits in the third, fourth and part of the fifth inning.

At least, if they were alarmed, they did a pretty good job of hiding it.

Mike attributed his dismal showing to the fact "I just did not have anything" which was plainly apparent to every Indian eager to get a bat and massacre his lollypops.

DARK LEFT Mike on the mound, not with any sadistic intention of seeing him clobbered into humiliation, but in the hope he might "reach back for that little extra and start firing."

The 22-year-old southpaw didn't find that possible and Dark finally had to call a halt even though McCormick threw only 64 pitches when he had been scheduled to throw 80 or 90 according to the conditioning chart Dark and Jansen keep on each pitcher.

"MIKE TOLD me when I talked with him on the bus during the ride back to Phoenix from Tucson that his arm wasn't sore but felt tired," said Dark. "That's why we gave him two days off before he pitched batting practice Wednesday and three more days off prior to his start this Sunday.

"This will be the last week when there is a six-day rest for any pitcher. That's too much. Mike will go again next Thursday and by that time he should be getting them out."

Dark felt certain that Mike's pride or psyche wasn't injured by what happened in Tucson and Mike himself brushed it off, despite the fact it was the worst clobbering he ever sustained, by saying:

"IF ANYTHING I was angry at myself for not being able to get the ball down. But my arm felt heavy. That's all there was to it."

As for his general condition, Mike said he never felt better; that his legs were in "great shape" from all the running he did and is still doing.

While McCormick, Dark and Jansen did not discuss the reason why Mike's arm should feel tired or heavy, it seemed only logical to trace the reason to this year's conditioning program for the pitchers—a radical departure from that of past springs.

AS SOON as they reported on Washington's Birthday, the pitchers were encouraged to work daily on the mound in batting practice. Then, there were a minimum (three) intrasquad games so the pitchers got no competitive mound work under actual game conditions until the Cactus League exhibition series opened.

Dark and Jansen are convinced this conditioning program is going to bring the pitchers to their peak for the opening of the season April 11, but not without moments of apprehension, such as last Sunday.

Championship Pride Sparks Bucs To Torrid Spring Mark

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

They don't strut or swagger, but the fierce pride and enthusiasm that carried the world chamion Pittsburgh Pirates to the top last year underscores their imposing 11-3 exhibition record.

Dick Groat, shortstop for the Bucs and the National League batting champion, puts it this way. "We take tremendous pride in the pennant and the World Series. There is every bit as much enthusiasm in camp as there was last year."

His mates are content to do their talking on the playing field where they made Philadelphia victim No. 11 yesterday. Joe Christopher's 4-for-4 performance paced a 20-hit attack that overwhelmed the Phils, 15-9.

The Boston Red Sox brought the American League's best record to 8-3 with an 11-7 triumph over the Chicago Cubs, and the streaking Baltimore Orioles won their sixth straight by beating New York 4-3.

In other games, Minnesota edged the Los Angeles Dodgers' main squad 5-4, the Dodgers' B team nipped Washington 8-7, the Chicago White Sox defeated Milwaukee 3-2, St. Louis whipped Detroit 6-5, Cincinnati got by Kansas City 4-3 and San Francisco belted the Los Angeles Angels 13-4.

The Pirates won it despite a five-homer outburst—four off ace Vern Law—by the Phils. Jim Coker connected twice and Bob Malkmus, Johnny Callison and Bob Sadowski once each. Christopher had a pair of singles, a triple and a homer for Pittsburgh.

Pumpsie Green's bases-loaded double drove in three runs in the eighth inning as the Red Sox came from behind to overtake the Cubs. Green and Frank Malzone, who hit a a two-run homer in the third, each drove in three Boston runs.

Marv Breeding's sixth-inning homer with Russ Snyder aboard was the clincher for the Orioles. Skinny Brown, touched for Mickey Mantle's fifth homer, gave up all three Yankee runs.

Sandy Koufax pitched no-hit ball in a seven-inning stint for the Dodgers' main squad. But ninth-inning homers by Earl Battey, with two on, and pinch hitter Lenny Green, with one on, brought the Twins from behind. Don Demeter homered for Los Angeles.

Tommy Davis singled Wally Moon home with the winning run as the Dodgers' B team scored three in the ninth to whip the Senators. Al Smith's sixth-inning home run was the clincher for the White Sox, as Billy Pierce checked the Braves on five hits in a six-inning workout.

The Cards beat the Tigers when Billy Bruton dropped a fly ball and permitted the tying and winning runs to score in the eighth inning. The Reds scored all their runs on home runs against the A's with Vada Pinson slamming two solo shots and Chico Cardenas hitting a one-on homer.

Novato Trap Shoot Scheduled Sunday

Novato Trapshooting club will hold a public shoot beginning at 10 a.m. Sunday in back of Club Rio, off Highway 101 south of Novato.

Chicken, salami and bacon prizes will be awarded to top shots in trap and 40-yard target shooting.

The eighth annual Marin Sports and Boat Show, with all proceeds going to the club's important conservation program, is expected to draw more than 35,000 persons. Admission is free and plenty of free parking is available.

In addition to a spectacular array of the latest in outdoor equipment, the 1961 show will feature a number of exclusive demonstrations and exhibits, including the famed gun collection of Harold's Club of Reno, a special water ballet by students of Olympic swimming champion Ann Curtis Cuneo, skin diving demonstrations by underwater experts, an archery tournament and bow and arrow demonstrations, a John Robert Powers fashion show, a casting demonstration by Jules P. Cuenin and a host of others.

To top off the performance, co-chairmen Barney DeBischop and Monty Marzetta have lined up a host of prizes—including a fishing boat, motor and trailer—which will be given away during the three-day event.

Hours for the show are from 6:30 to 11 o'clock tonight, 1 to 11 p.m. tomorrow and 11 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. on Sunday.

PREP TOURNEY POSTPONED TO NEXT MONDAY

Marin County Athletic League's annual baseball tournament, scheduled today and tomorrow, has been postponed until next Monday and Tuesday because of rain, it was announced this morning by Athletic Director Bob Troppmann of Redwood, the tourney sponsor.

Troppmann said Monday's first round games would be played at 4, 6 and 8 p.m. with Tuesday's four-game schedule starting at 12 noon, 2, 4 and 8 p.m.

"If we can't play it Monday," Troppmann said, "we'll have to postpone it until later in the season."

Tryouts Sunday For S.R. Pony Leaguers

The tryouts also will mark the final chance for boys registering for the 1961 season, Jones announced 110 boys already have signed up.

Bulldogs Win Track Debut

San Rafael High School opened the Marin Athletic League's dual track and field schedule yesterday with a convincing sweep of all three divisions against the Redwood Giants.

Jay Lathrop's time of 4 minutes, 41.8 seconds in the mile, excellent for so early in the season, highlighted the Bulldogs' 73-40 victory in Class A.

Roger Smeets' 11-foot, 2-inch pole vault and a double victory by Ray Hoffman in the law hurdles and 75-yard dash paced San Rafael's 91-17 victory in Class B. Bob Olson won the 75 and the broad jump to lead the Bulldogs in Class C, 53-23.

Class A winners:

120 H.H., Stevens (SR), 18.2; 880, Andrewsen (SR), 2:11.3; 100 Alessio (R), 10.5; 440, Shafer (SR), 54.9; 180 L.H., Dippel (R), 24.0; 220, Haney (SR), 23.2; Mile, Lathrop (SR), 4:41.8; Shot, D. They don't strut or swagger, but the fierce pride and enthusiasm that carried the world chamion Pittsburgh Pirates to the top last year underscores their imposing 11-3 exhibition record.

Dick Groat, shortstop for the Bucs and the National League batting champion, puts it this way. "We take tremendous pride in the pennant and the World Series. There is every bit as much enthusiasm in camp as there was last year."

His mates are content to do their talking on the playing field where they made Philadelphia victim No. 11 yesterday. Joe Christopher's 4-for-4 performance paced a 20-hit attack that overwhelmed the Phils, 15-9.

The Boston Red Sox brought the American League's best record to 8-3 with an 11-7 triumph over the Chicago Cubs, and the streaking Baltimore Orioles won their sixth straight by beating New York 4-3.

In other games, Minnesota edged the Los Angeles Dodgers' main squad 5-4, the Dodgers' B team nipped Washington 8-7, the Chicago White Sox defeated Milwaukee 3-2, St. Louis whipped Detroit 6-5, Cincinnati got by Kansas City 4-3 and San Francisco belted the Los Angeles Angels 13-4.

The Pirates won it despite a five-homer outburst—four off ace Vern Law—by the Phils. Jim Coker connected twice and Bob Malkmus, Johnny Callison and Bob Sadowski once each. Christopher had a pair of singles, a triple and a homer for Pittsburgh.

Pumpsie Green's bases-loaded double drove in three runs in the eighth inning as the Red Sox came from behind to overtake the Cubs. Green and Frank Malzone, who hit a a two-run homer in the third, each drove in three Boston runs.

Marv Breeding's sixth-inning homer with Russ Snyder aboard was the clincher for the Orioles. Skinny Brown, touched for Mickey Mantle's fifth homer, gave up all three Yankee runs.

Sandy Koufax pitched no-hit ball in a seven-inning stint for the Dodgers' main squad. But ninth-inning homers by Earl Battey, with two on, and pinch hitter Lenny Green, with one on, brought the Twins from behind. Don Demeter homered for Los Angeles.

Tommy Davis singled Wally Moon home with the winning run as the Dodgers' B team scored three in the ninth to whip the Senators. Al Smith's sixth-inning home run was the clincher for the White Sox, as Billy Pierce checked the Braves on five hits in a six-inning workout.

The Cards beat the Tigers when Billy Bruton dropped a fly ball and permitted the tying and winning runs to score in the eighth inning. The Reds scored all their runs on home runs against the A's with Vada Pinson slamming two solo shots and Chico Cardenas hitting a one-on homer.

California's only sportsman-sponsored sport show goes on again this weekend when the doors open tonight on the annual Marin Rod and Gun Club outdoor spectacle at San Rafael's Bermuda Palms.

The eighth annual Marin Sports and Boat Show, with all proceeds going to the club's important conservation program, is expected to draw more than 35,000 persons. Admission is free and plenty of free parking is available.

In addition to a spectacular array of the latest in outdoor equipment, the 1961 show will feature a number of exclusive demonstrations and exhibits, including the famed gun collection of Harold's Club of Reno, a special water ballet by students of Olympic swimming champion Ann Curtis Cuneo, skin diving demonstrations by underwater experts, an archery tournament and bow and arrow demonstrations, a John Robert Powers fashion show, a casting demonstration by Jules P. Cuenin and a host of others.

To top off the performance, co-chairmen Barney DeBisschop and Monty Marzetta have lined up a host of prizes—including a fishing boat, motor and trailer—which will be given away during the three-day event.

Hours for the show are from 6:30 to 11 o'clock tonight, 1 to 11 p.m. tomorrow and 11 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Roger Smeets' 11-foot, 2-inch pole vault and a double victory by Ray Hoffman in the law hurdles and 75-yard dash paced San Rafael's 91-17 victory in Class B. Bob Olson won the 75 and the broad jump to lead the Bulldogs in Class C, 53-23.

S.F. Olympic Club Takes On Top-Seeded Denver In AAU

DENVER (AP) — Top-seeded Denver, reduced by injuries to an eight-man squad, plays San Francisco Olympic Club and Cleveland's co-favorites meet New York in the semi-finals tonight of the 54th annual National AAU Basketball Tournament.

Denver and Cleveland breezed through their quarter-final opposition last night, but New York was hard-pressed to conquer Bartlesville, Okla., 87-84, and San Francisco battled all the way before downing pesky Des Moines 96-86.

Cleveland crushed Burien, Wash., 120-90 and Denver waltzed by Seattle 107-81.

Despite the loss of George Bon Salle, who broke an elbow in a second round game and other personnel shortages, Denver's eight-man team rules a slight favorite over the Olympic Club of San Francisco Bay Area collegians, including St. Mary's Tom Meschery.

Bill McClintock's 22 points and Ron Tomsic's 21 were the chief weapons in the Olympic Club victory. Gus Guydon, ex-Drake, paced the Des Moines team with 23.

The winners tonight will meet tomorrow night for the championship, the losers for third place.

"How can anyone say a ball player who has had a bad year is through?" Dark asks.

"I've been in baseball too long to think a player who has spent time in the majors can fall to pieces in one season. It just doesn't make sense."

Dark has high hopes for Willie McCovey. He likes Felipe Alou, Willie Mays, Harvey Kuenn, Orlando Cepeda.

"We can't have all generals on our club," Dark hastens to explain. "We have to have some privates. And right now I think that is the kind of ball club the Giants have for 1961."

Humboldt Co. Star Leads Western Golf

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Willowy Ron Weber, a golf unknown beyond the collegiate world and his own section of Humboldt County in California, maintained his whip hand over par today as a pared-down field entered the third round of the taxing Western Amateur tournament.

The 6-1, 160-pound Weber, a 21-year-old member of the University of Houston's NCAA title team, matched par 71 in yesterday's second round for a 36-hole total of 139.

This was good enough for a two-stroke lead over Dick Crosby, a 23-year-old steel mill worker from East Chicago, Ind., who had a second-round 72 over the 6,505-yard New Orleans Country Club course.

FAVORITES TRAIL

Behind them care hard-luck Carl Lohren of Silver Spring, Md., at 142, lean Dudley Wysong of McKinney, Tex., at 143 and tournament choices Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, and Deane Beman of Bethesda, Md., grouped with four others at 144.

The 56 survivors—154 was the cutoff after the first two rounds of qualifying—competed today for the 16 spots in the two days of match play tomorrow and Sunday.

Weber, a normally quiet guy, had little to say after Thursday's round.

"Nothing spectacular," he said. "It was almost a dull round. Two birdies, two bogeys and the rest par."

Aussie, Canadian Shatter American Swimming Records

SEATTLE (AP) — A famous Australian and an unsung Canadian won two U.S. collegiate swimming titles yesterday and knocked off a pair of American records in the process.

Only two finals were contested in the opening day of the NCAA 1961 meet.

Murray Rose, Australia's Olympic star swimming for Southern California, won the 1500-meter freestyle in 17 minutes 21.8 seconds. It was his own American record, set in 1959, that Rose shattered by 9.5 seconds.

The Canadian is John Kelso, who grew up in the British Columbia fishing village of Ocean Falls but swims now for Denver University. Kelso defeated favored Lance Larson of Southern California and broke Larson's American and NCAA records for the 200-yard individual medley.

The mark in both cases was 2:03.2 and Kelso, overhauling Larson at the midway point of the race, showed his heels to the defending champion in a time of 2:02.9. Larson was timed in 2:03.4.

CONTRAST OF STYLES

Providence, St. Louis Vie In NIT Finals Tomorrow

NEW YORK (AP)—Providence, a go-go-go basketball team, and St. Louis, which cuts 'em off at the pass like the hero of a TV Western, will meet tomorrow afternoon in the final of the 24th National Invitation Basketball Tournament.

It should be an interesting contrast of styles. They took opposite routes from nowhere into the last round and they'll be meeting for the third straight year in this oldest of all postseason basketball jamborees.

Providence won the first two—75-72 in two overtime periods in 1959 and 64-53 last year. But that hasn't proved anything about the way they play. The two coaches and many neutral observers agree on that point.

"It was a typical game for us. We seem to lose our control when we have a late lead," said Providence Coach Joe Mullaney after his Friars blew a seven-point lead in the last two minutes of regulation time then came back to gain a 90-83 overtime decision over scrappy Holy Cross in last night's semifinals.

"We have to make them play our game. That's the only way we win," said Coach John Benington of the deliberate St. Louis Billikens, whose 67-60 victory over Dayton was their highest score in three tournament games.

SRHS Tennis Triumph

San Rafael High School's tennis team this week swept all five matches in a non-league meet at Santa Rosa High. Bulldog winners were Steve Stockton, Harvey Klyce and Bill Clark in singles and the doubles teams of Harry Miller-Mike Calder and Greg Parkerson-Ron Klyce.

Celtics Take 2-1 Lead In NBA Playoff

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Home court advantage seems to be making the difference in the Eastern division playoffs of the National Basketball Assn., and this arrangement is perfectly suitable to the Boston Celtics.

The Celtics tripped the Syracuse Nationals, 133-110, at Boston last night to take a 2-1 advantage over the Nats in their best-of-seven series. Each team had previously won once on its home floor, and should the playoff be extended to the full seven games, the odd game would be played in Boston.

Los Angeles and St. Louis resume their Western Division playoff in California tonight, the teams having split two games at St. Louis.

Veteran Bill Sharman scored a game high of 30 points for the Celtics, including 21 points in the first half when Boston jumped to a 14-point advantage.

BIG CUSHION

The defending champion Celts opened their bulge to 29 points in the third quarter and tight defensive tactics enabled them to coast on their big cushion.

Playing key roles for the Celtics were big Bill Russell, who grabbed 39 rebounds and 18 points, and rookie Tom Sanders, who held veteran Dolph Schayes of Syracuse to 18 points while tossing in 13 points himself.

Dick Barnett was top scorer for the Nationals with 29 points. Boston and Syracuse shift to Syracuse for the fourth game tomorrow.

Big And Little Sister Golf Tourney Results

Results of the Marin Golf Club's "Big and Little Sister" tournament played yesterday:

Class A—Mrs. Rudy Samson-Mrs. Max Antonini, 103-27½—75½; Mrs. Robert Vannucci-Mrs. Judson Macby, 110-29½—80½; Mrs. Walter Corbin-Mrs. Joseph Rice, 110-29—81.

Class B—Mrs. A. E. Wilson-Mrs. William Zavosky, 105-32—73; Mrs. Paul Melcher-Helen Boardman, 107-32—75; Mrs. Scott Graham-Mrs. Carl Schieck, 112-31—81.

Ohio State Choice In NCAA Playoff

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Ohio State's mighty Buckeyes enter the semi-final stage of their quest for a second straight National Collegiate NCAA basketball crown in a game with the capable St. Joseph's (Pa.) Hawks tonight.

The odds—14 points — point to success for All-America Jerry Lucas and the defending champion Buckeyes, who carry a 31-game winning streak and their No. 1 national ranking into the fray.

The second semi-final matches the second-ranked Cincinnati Bearcats (25-3) against the Utah Redmen (23-6).

If Ohio State and Cincinnati, which is a 6-point favorite, live up to their billing, Saturday night's finals will be the first of the NCAA's 23 basketball tournaments matching two teams from one state.

Cincinnati and Ohio State haven't met in basketball since 1922.

SELLOUT CROWD

Municipal Auditorium's 10,500-seat arena has been sold out for weeks. The championship game will be televised locally and by a number of stations in the areas from which the finalists come.

St. Joseph's, (24-4), which has a 15-game winning streak going, could be the sleeper in the final round.

The Hawks did not rank among the leaders nationally in any phase of the statistics, but averaged 80 points per game against 70 for their foes. They have a fine scorer in 6-6 Jack Egan who has a 21.7 average.

St. Joseph will send two sophomores and three seniors against the all-veteran Buckeyes. The rookies are James Lynam, smallest man in the tournament at 5-8, and 6-foot Bill Hoy. Lyman has averaged 10.7 points a game, Hoy 12.

SMALLEST ENTRY

The Hawks' front line of Egan (6-6), Frank Majewski (6-3) and Vince Kempton (6-8) completes a team average of 6-2½, shortest of the four finalists.

The Cincinnati-Utah game pits the Bearcats' balance and rebounding power against the Utes' sharp shooting, led by Billy "The Hill" McGill, who has a 27.7 average.

Cincinnati has a great rebounding trio in Bob Wiesenhahn (6-4), Paul Hogue (6-9) and Tom Thacker, a high jumping 6-2 sophomore.

Ohio State, with Lucas averaging 24.6 points per game, has a team average of 85.5 for its 26 outings. Utah has averaged 81.1, St. Joseph's 80 and Cincinnati 75. Cincinunati has the best defensive average, however, 60.4, compared to Ohio State's 65.4, Utah's 67.9 and St. Joseph's 70.

"We can't have all generals on our club." Dark hastens to explain. "We have to have some privates. And right now I think that is the kind of ball club the Giants have for 1961."

Humboldt Co. Star Leads Western Golf

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Willowy Ron Weber, a golf unknown beyond the collegiate world and his own section of Humboldt County in California, maintained his whip hand over par today as a pared-down field entered the third round of the taxing Western Amateur tournament.

The 6-1, 160-pound Weber, a 21-year-old member of the University of Houston's NCAA title team, matched par 71 in yesterday's second round for a 36-hole total of 139.

This was good enough for a two-stroke lead over Dick Crosby, a 23-year-old steel mill worker from East Chicago, Ind., who had a second-round 72 over the 6,505-yard New Orleans Country Club course.

FAVORITES TRAIL

Behind them care hard-luck Carl Lohren of Silver Spring, Md., at 142, lean Dudley Wysong of McKinney, Tex., at 143 and tournament choices Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, and Deane Beman of Bethesda, Md., grouped with four others at 144.

The 56 survivors—154 was the cutoff after the first two rounds of qualifying—competed today for the 16 spots in the two days of match play tomorrow and Sunday.

Weber, a normally quiet guy, had little to say after Thursday's round.

"Nothing spectacular," he said. "It was almost a dull round. Two birdies, two bogeys and the rest par."

Aussie, Canadian Shatter American Swimming Records

SEATTLE (AP) — A famous Australian and an unsung Canadian won two U.S. collegiate swimming titles yesterday and knocked off a pair of American records in the process.

Only two finals were contested in the opening day of the NCAA 1961 meet.

Murray Rose, Australia's Olympic star swimming for Southern California, won the 1500-meter freestyle in 17 minutes 21.8 seconds. It was his own American record, set in 1959, that Rose shattered by 9.5 seconds.

The Canadian is John Kelso, who grew up in the British Columbia fishing village of Ocean Falls but swims now for Denver University. Kelso defeated favored Lance Larson of Southern California and broke Larson's American and NCAA records for the 200-yard individual medley.

The mark in both cases was 2:03.2 and Kelso, overhauling Larson at the midway point of the race, showed his heels to the defending champion in a time of 2:02.9. Larson was timed in 2:03.4.

RUSSELL COLLAPSES — Boston trainer Buddy LaRoux works over Celtic ace Bill Russell in fourth period of playoff game with Syracuse in Boston last night. CONTRAST OF STYLES

Providence, St. Louis Vie In NIT Finals Tomorrow

NEW YORK (AP)—Providence, a go-go-go basketball team, and St. Louis, which cuts 'em off at the pass like the hero of a TV Western, will meet tomorrow afternoon in the final of the 24th National Invitation Basketball Tournament.

It should be an interesting contrast of styles. They took opposite routes from nowhere into the last round and they'll be meeting for the third straight year in this oldest of all postseason basketball jamborees.

Providence won the first two —75-72 in two overtime periods in 1959 and 64-53 last year. But that hasn't proved anything about the way they play. The two coaches and many neutral observers agree on that point.

"It was a typical game for us. We seem to lose our control when we have a late lead," said Providence Coach Joe Mullaney after his Friars blew a seven-point lead in the last two minutes of regulation time then came back to gain a 90-83 overtime decision over scrappy Holy Cross in last night's semifinals.

"We have to make them play our game. That's the only way we win," said Coach John Benington of the deliberate St. Louis Billikens, whose 67-60 victory over Dayton was their highest score in three tournament games.

SRHS Tennis Triumph

San Rafael High School's tennis team this week swept all five matches in a non-league meet at Santa Rosa High. Bulldog winners were Steve Stockton, Harvey Klyce and Bill Clark in singles and the doubles teams of Harry Miller-Mike Calder and Greg Parkerson-Ron Klyce.

Celtics Take 2-1 Lead In NBA Playoff

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Home court advantage seems to be making the difference in the Eastern division playoffs of the National Basketball Assn., and this arrangement is perfectly suitable to the Boston Celtics.

The Celtics tripped the Syracuse Nationals, 133-110, at Boston last night to take a 2-1 advantage over the Nats in their best-of-seven series. Each team had previously won once on its home floor, and should the playoff be extended to the full seven games, the odd game would be played in Boston.

Los Angeles and St. Louis resume their Western Division playoff in California tonight, the teams having split two games at St. Louis.

Veteran Bill Sharman scored a game high of 30 points for the Celtics, including 21 points in the first half when Boston jumped to a 14-point advantage.

BIG CUSHION

The defending champion Celts opened their bulge to 29 points in the third quarter and tight defensive tactics enabled them to coast on their big cushion.

Playing key roles for the Celtics were big Bill Russell, who grabbed 39 rebounds and 18 points, and rookie Tom Sanders, who held veteran Dolph Schayes of Syracuse to 18 points while tossing in 13 points himself.

Dick Barnett was top scorer for the Nationals with 29 points. Boston and Syracuse shift to Syracuse for the fourth game tomorrow.

Big And Little Sister Golf Tourney Results

Results of the Marin Golf Club's "Big and Little Sister" tournament played yesterday:

Class A—Mrs. Rudy Samson-Mrs. Max Antonini, 103-27½—75½; Mrs. Robert Vannucci-Mrs. Judson Macby, 110-29½—80½; Mrs. Walter Corbin-Mrs. Joseph Rice, 110-29—81.

Class B—Mrs. A. E. Wilson-Mrs. William Zavosky, 105-32—73; Mrs. Paul Melcher-Helen Boardman, 107-32—75; Mrs. Scott Graham-Mrs. Carl Schieck, 112-31—81.

Ohio State Choice In NCAA Playoff

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Ohio State's mighty Buckeyes enter the semi-final stage of their quest for a second straight National Collegiate NCAA basketball crown in a game with the capable St. Joseph's (Pa.) Hawks tonight.

The odds—14 points — point to success for All-America Jerry Lucas and the defending champion Buckeyes, who carry a 31-game winning streak and their No. 1 national ranking into the fray.

The second semi-final matches the second-ranked Cincinnati Bearcats (25-3) against the Utah Redmen (23-6).

If Ohio State and Cincinnati, which is a 6-point favorite, live up to their billing, Saturday night's finals will be the first of the NCAA's 23 basketball tournaments matching two teams from one state.

Cincinnati and Ohio State haven't met in basketball since 1922.

SELLOUT CROWD

Municipal Auditorium's 10,500-seat arena has been sold out for weeks. The championship game will be televised locally and by a number of stations in the areas from which the finalists come.

St. Joseph's, (24-4), which has a 15-game winning streak going, could be the sleeper in the final round.

The Hawks did not rank among the leaders nationally in any phase of the statistics, but averaged 80 points per game against 70 for their foes. They have a fine scorer in 6-6 Jack Egan who has a 21.7 average.

St. Joseph will send two sophomores and three seniors against the all-veteran Buckeyes. The rookies are James Lynam, smallest man in the tournament at 5-8, and 6-foot Bill Hoy. Lyman has averaged 10.7 points a game, Hoy 12.

SMALLEST ENTRY

The Hawks' front line of Egan (6-6), Frank Majewski (6-3) and Vince Kempton (6-8) completes a team average of 6-2½, shortest of the four finalists.

The Cincinnati-Utah game pits the Bearcats' balance and rebounding power against the Utes' sharp shooting, led by Billy "The Hill" McGill, who has a 27.7 average.

Cincinnati has a great rebounding trio in Bob Wiesenhahn (6-4), Paul Hogue (6-9) and Tom Thacker, a high jumping 6-2 sophomore.

Ohio State, with Lucas averaging 24.6 points per game, has a team average of 85.5 for its 26 outings. Utah has averaged 81.1, St. Joseph's 80 and Cincinnati 75. Cincinunati has the best defensive average, however, 60.4, compared to Ohio State's 65.4, Utah's 67.9 and St. Joseph's 70.

Sturgeon Regulations Explained; Monster Lurks In Delta Waters

STEVENS

In my mail this morning was a note from Bob Wells, writing man for the Argus-Courier. It reads: "In your March 16 column you tell of a boy hooking a sturgeon in the tail. Is that legal? I think a fish has to be hooked in the mouth."

No, Bob, strictly speaking it is not legal to snag and keep a sturgeon. But it most certainly is not illegal to ACCIDENTLY have a sturgeon snag himself on a bass-fisherman's hook. If the fish swims away and tows the boat, the fisherman has every right to stay with that fish until he can get close enough to save his gear. The law doesn't expect the unfortunate angler to lose his rod and reel and line and hooks. If it is necessary to bring that fish over the side of the boat in order to retrieve his tackle, what law would find him guilty of an illegal act? He can't sue the sturgeon for the loss of his gear.

ACTUALLY the regulation covering the taking of sturgeon by the beastie voluntarily taking the hook in its mouth became necessary shortly after the season was opened, because it was found that by slowly dragging a heavy line with gang hooks attached, the sturgeon was comparitively easy to snag. So many fish were taken in this manner there was imminent danger of the sturgeon being exterminated. Hence the ban against trolling for sturgeon. Note that in the sport fishing regulations now, the only restriction reads: "Method of take: No sturgeon may be taken by trolling."

SPEAKING of sturgeon, George Caddy, who fishes about 52 weekends out of the year, and mostly in the Delta region, stopped by the house the other morning to invite me on a trip. He offered to show me the monster (as long as a rowboat and weighing around 400 pounds) that has been seen in the deep hole on the Grant Line Canal. George gave the following directions on how to see—and maybe catch — the big fellow. Get a boat, or launch your own out of Del Hansen's place called the Livermore Yacht Harbor. Go to river, under the bridge, to where the river forks and the water swirls. That is the sturgeon's hangout. "Most any early morning you can hear him or even see part of him as he rolls," declared George.

It seems the monster fancies light lines and breaks them regularly, but he sneers at any line strong enough to hold him.

BY THE WAY, the sector where the sturgeon lurks is also a famous spot for some hefty catfish.

A LATE RELEASE from East Bay Municipal Utilities District predicts a record turnout on April 1, when the fishing season opens at Pardee Reservoir, located 38 miles northeast of Stockton on the Mokelumne River.

Recreation facilities are excellent at Pardee. Concrete launching ramp can handle 10 boats at a time. Boats and motors may be rented and you can rent berthing space. There are four large picnic areas with tables and barbecue units; play areas for softball, badminton, volley ball and horseshoes, besides a kiddies' play area with swings and sand boxes. There are 50 overnight trailer and camp sites.

Sounds like a fine setup for a weekend or longer stay. Oh, yes, fishing is likely to be very good. Small mouth black bass and sunfish galore. A small mouth of 19 inches was taken from Pardee.

Many of the reservoirs are producing black bass at present, and the word is good from Clear Lake, but my records show the season to be still too early for the Delta rivers and sloughs. Figure around the middle of April.

CHAMP—Outstanding swimmers from 36 high schools, led by Olympic contender Steve Clark (above) of Los Altos, will converge on Tamalpais High School tomorrow to compete in the third annual Bay Area Invitational Relays with trials at 9:30 a.m. and finals at 2 p.m.

Sports Cars In Hillclimb This Weekend

More than 150 sports car drivers will seek to better the mark set by Danno Raffetto of Placerville at a Sports Car Club of American hillclimb at Coloma tomorrow and Sunday.

Raffetto, driving a red 1957 Corvette, negotiated the two-mile course in two minutes, 13 seconds last year.

The climb, with 19 major turns, is located on the outskirts of Coloma, site of gold discovery in the historic Mother Lode country. To reach the site, turn left on Highway 49 on the freeway bypassing Placerville. Proceed through Coloma on Highway 49, then turn right toward Garden Valley. The hillclimb site is about one-half mile along this road.

SEASON'S FIRST

The hillclimb is the first event of the season staged by the SCCA, which conducts all of northern California's sports car races. The same hillclimb site has been used for three years by the Sacramento Sports Car Club.

Post entries will be accepted at the hillclimb. The entrance fee is $10 per driver, and cars will be required to pass a technical inspection. There is no admission charge for spectators.

Action begins tomorrow at 7:30 a.m. with tech inspection and registration at the course, followed by practice runs. Timed runs will finish the rest of tomorrow's schedule and will begin again at 8:30 a.m. Sunday.

On the social side are a dinner dance tomorrow night at the Placerville Elks Club and a trophy presentation at the Raffles Hotel on Sunday night.

Next event by the SCCA will be races at Stockton on April 15 and 16, followed by an event at the state fairgrounds in Sacramento in May.

DEER SEASON AUG. 5-SEPT. 24

No Major Changes Proposed In Fish-Game Regulations

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's 1961 hunting rules will be virtually the same as last year's if the State Fish and Game Department has its way.

Deer hunters would get their first crack at bucks in the coastal area Aug. 5 and inland Sept. 23—except for bow and arrow hunters, whose seasons would begin two weeks earlier.

"No major change" was the description of Walter T. Shannon, director of fish and game, of his department's proposals released yesterday.

Season openers would be adjusted to provide Saturday openings, but general season, bag limits and other rules would be almost identical to last year.

FINAL RULES

The proposed rules go to the Fish and Game Commission April 7. Final rules will be adopted May 26.

The department's season proposals include:

Coast deer, Aug. 5-Sept. 24; inland deer Sept. 23-Nov. 5; pheasants Nov. 17-Dec. 3, except in the Imperial area, which would run to Dec. 17 and the short season in southern California cooperative areas, Nov. 18-27.

Valley, mountain and desert quail, Nov. 4-Jan. 1, except for northeastern California, where the season would end Dec. 15. A special additional mountain quail season is proposed for Sept. 30-Oct. 8.

The bear season would be the same as last year, opening with the deer seasons and running until Jan. 15, except in Humboldt County, which is open all year.

There would be a special early deer and bear season for bow and arrow hunters July 22-31 and a late season Sept. 9-18.

Hill's Ferrari Favored In Sebring Endurance Classic

SEBRING, Fla. (AP)—A powerful V6 Ferrari with its engine behind the driver's seat, emerged from practice tests as the car to beat in tomorrow's 12-hour Sebring endurance road race.

The Ferrari, with only a few hours of road time on its chart, exceeded the Sebring lap record of 94.99 miles per hour on six different trips around the snake-like 5-2-mile course yesterday.

Phil Hill of Santa Monica, scheduled to drive a front-engine Ferrari, Averaged 96.61 m.p.h. when he covered the distance in 3 minutes, 13.6 seconds. He was under 3:16 on three other laps. Timers clocked Richie Ginther, also of Santa Monica, in 3:15.7 twice.

Drivers expect the race to develop into a fight between conventional front engine Ferraris, durable Silver Porsches and big Maseratis. All three makes are represented by factory teams composed of Europeans and Americans.

Raffetto, driving a red 1957 Corvette, negotiated the two-mile course in two minutes, 13 seconds last year.

The climb, with 19 major turns, is located on the outskirts of Coloma, site of gold discovery in the historic Mother Lode country. To reach the site, turn left on Highway 49 on the freeway bypassing Placerville. Proceed through Coloma on Highway 49, then turn right toward Garden Valley. The hillclimb site is about one-half mile along this road.

SEASON'S FIRST

The hillclimb is the first event of the season staged by the SCCA, which conducts all of northern California's sports car races. The same hillclimb site has been used for three years by the Sacramento Sports Car Club.

Post entries will be accepted at the hillclimb. The entrance fee is $10 per driver, and cars will be required to pass a technical inspection. There is no admission charge for spectators.

Action begins tomorrow at 7:30 a.m. with tech inspection and registration at the course, followed by practice runs. Timed runs will finish the rest of tomorrow's schedule and will begin again at 8:30 a.m. Sunday.

On the social side are a dinner dance tomorrow night at the Placerville Elks Club and a trophy presentation at the Raffles Hotel on Sunday night.

Next event by the SCCA will be races at Stockton on April 15 and 16, followed by an event at the state fairgrounds in Sacramento in May.

DEER SEASON AUG. 5-SEPT. 24

No Major Changes Proposed In Fish-Game Regulations

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's 1961 hunting rules will be virtually the same as last year's if the State Fish and Game Department has its way.

Deer hunters would get their first crack at bucks in the coastal area Aug. 5 and inland Sept. 23—except for bow and arrow hunters, whose seasons would begin two weeks earlier.

"No major change" was the description of Walter T. Shannon, director of fish and game, of his department's proposals released yesterday.

Season openers would be adjusted to provide Saturday openings, but general season, bag limits and other rules would be almost identical to last year.

FINAL RULES

The proposed rules go to the Fish and Game Commission April 7. Final rules will be adopted May 26.

The department's season proposals include:

Coast deer, Aug. 5-Sept. 24; inland deer Sept. 23-Nov. 5; pheasants Nov. 17-Dec. 3, except in the Imperial area, which would run to Dec. 17 and the short season in southern California cooperative areas, Nov. 18-27.

Valley, mountain and desert quail, Nov. 4-Jan. 1, except for northeastern California, where the season would end Dec. 15. A special additional mountain quail season is proposed for Sept. 30-Oct. 8.

The bear season would be the same as last year, opening with the deer seasons and running until Jan. 15, except in Humboldt County, which is open all year.

There would be a special early deer and bear season for bow and arrow hunters July 22-31 and a late season Sept. 9-18.

Hill's Ferrari Favored In Sebring Endurance Classic

SEBRING, Fla. (AP)—A powerful V6 Ferrari with its engine behind the driver's seat, emerged from practice tests as the car to beat in tomorrow's 12-hour Sebring endurance road race.

The Ferrari, with only a few hours of road time on its chart, exceeded the Sebring lap record of 94.99 miles per hour on six different trips around the snake-like 5-2-mile course yesterday.

Phil Hill of Santa Monica, scheduled to drive a front-engine Ferrari, Averaged 96.61 m.p.h. when he covered the distance in 3 minutes, 13.6 seconds. He was under 3:16 on three other laps. Timers clocked Richie Ginther, also of Santa Monica, in 3:15.7 twice.

Drivers expect the race to develop into a fight between conventional front engine Ferraris, durable Silver Porsches and big Maseratis. All three makes are represented by factory teams composed of Europeans and Americans.

Women Are Called To Duty In Behalf Of Civil Defense

Women were called on this week to help with one of the principal jobs in civil defense —disseminating survival information to the public.

The women's civil defense conference was held in Santa Rosa at the region 7 headquarters, U.S. Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization. Among those attending was Mrs. Vera L. Schultz, former Marin County supervisor, representing Marin County Civil Defense.

Evar Peterson, OCDM regional director, said that the nuclear-age job consists of (1.) Preparing governments to operate in an emergency, and (2.) Educating the public on survival measures, particularly on the need for fallout shelters.

The group of 80 women attending from five Pacific Southwest states toured typical family fallout shelters in Santa Rosa: underground model; aboveground, double-wall; and a shelter incorporated into an apartment.

The regional director, pointing out that civil defense plans have been revised and adjusted gradually, said that long-range planning for mobilization of resources is taking on increased importance. This includes such areas as economic stabilization, and mobilization of manpower, medical, utilities, and other resources.

The women took part in a short exercise demonstrating techniques of gathering intelligence information from states and cities during a national emergency.

They received briefings about the national exercise, Operation Alert; resources and production studies; radiological defense; emergency information; attack effects on population and governments; health and home sanitation; and economic stabilization.

Nurses At Conclave

Two members of the nursing staff at Marin General Hospital are busy attending conferences.

Mrs. Marian Dorsey Lee, R.N., assistant director of nursing, is currently at Bethesda, Md. She is attending a two-week ward management and teaching conference.

Step-Togethers Dance

Step-Togethers of Marin will hold their monthly dance tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. in Brown's Hall, Mill Valley.

Mrs. Edna Pixley will be in charge of refreshments, and music for the all-request program of folk dances will be under the direction of Bill D'Alvy.

Rometti, treasurer; Tal Childers, secretary; Donald Comstock, conductress; Joseph King, chaplain; Reevin Cohen, guard; Ella Smith, musician; and Willis Cline, three-year trustee.

The new officers will be installed tomorrow in a joint 8 p.m. ceremony with those of Post 6741 at the Odd Fellows Hall. The public is invited.

In charge of the installation for the auxiliary will be Mrs. Glen Davis, past president of the 16th District, and the 16th District installing team.

BUSINESS UNIT IS SET FOR HI FI

Familiar Marin County sounds, from the creaking of the boats mooring at Sausalito to jets taking off at Hamilton Air Force Base, will be heard when Hugh Turner, manager of KTIM presents the rogram at the dinner meeting of Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin County, Tuesday night, March 28 at Alta Mira in Sausalito.

Mr. Turner, who has entitled the program "Interesting Sounds and Music In High Fidelity," has incorporated many sounds identified with the occupations of the club members. Florence Donnelly, the club's public affairs chairman, is in charge of the program and Dorothy Gilchrist will arrange the decorations. Helen Krause, club president, says the dinner which begins at 7:30 will be preceded by a social hour.

Redwood High Style Show Set

The Parent-Teacher Association of Redwood High School will present its third annual dessert-fashion show, "Melody in Fashion," at 1 p.m. Saturday, May 13, in the school gymnasium, Larkspur.

Making this announcement today was Mrs. Henry E. Skinner of Ross, who has been appointed general chairman for the event by the P-TA president Mrs. William J. Ferguson of Belvedere.

The dessert-fashion show is the only fund-raising project staged by the organization during the year. The 1961 edition will benefit the fund to provide robes for the Redwood Choir.

The choir, composed of 50 Redwood girls and boys and directed by Arthur Wigell, will sing at the May 13 event. The choir also will appear in a special spring concert at 8 p.m. Saturday, April 15, in the school gym, with proceeds going to the robe fund.

Models in this year's fashion show will be twenty Redwood High School girls. A San Francisco store will cooperate in staging the parade of spring and summer fashions.

Girl Scouts Study India, Hold Party

Girl Scouts find satisfaction in a "job well done" when the projects and plans they have made materialize into a weekend trip, entertaining others, or, perhaps, just having a party.

A study of India was completed by Brownie Troop 260 when Mrs. Richard Ellefsen of Saratoga visited their meeting to show colored slides taken during a year's stay in India with her family. The San Rafael girls also made saris which Mrs. Ellefsen helped them put on, together with red tilaka dots on their foreheads. She presented each Brownie with an Indian glass bangle before she left. The girls also learned to cook Meeta Pilau (sweet rice) from an authentic recipe, which is eaten from banana leaves with the fingers, while sitting cross-legged on the floor. Their leader is Mrs. Robert Mertle.

A joint ice skating party was enjoyed by San Anselmo Troops 104 and 191 at Raydine's recently. With their leaders, Mesdames C. J. Kealey, James Turrini, Phillip Gilbert and Frank Palazanto, the Intermediate Scouts enjoyed an evening of skating (and sitting) on the ice! Their parents were also invited to attend.

Intermediate Scout Troop 235 planned and carried out a "fun" weekend at Arequipa, Fairfax. As it was their first visit to the Council's newly acquired property, the Santa Venetia Junior High School students enjoyed a complete tour of the facilities. The fifteen Scouts were accompanied by Mesdames Ned Hassan, Mark Walker and Wesley Page.

Belvedere Intermediate Troop 31 celebrated World Friendship Day at Whitaker Hall, when each patrol entertained the rest of the troop with a German song, a Dutch hand puppet show and Danish refreshments. Under the leadership of Mesdames William Polhemus, Edward Doyle, John J. Osborn, James Reynolds and Warren Outten, the Scouts are also attending a series of six lessons for their Folk Dancing badge, taught by Mickey McGowan.

The members of San Anselmo Intermediate Scout Troop 160 entertained their mothers and St. Anselms' Brownie Troop 164 at Brookside School. Working on Second Class requirements, a "Punch and Judy" show was acted out by the Scouts, and an original melodrama in three acts was written and produced by them, too. Working with the Scouts were Mrs. Thomas Demsey and Mrs. Warner Bagley, their leaders. The Brownies entertained their hostesses with a Hawaiian song and dance.

Easter Seal Whist

A whist party for the benefit of the Easter Seal Society will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the IDESST Hall in Sausalito. Manuel Brazil is chairman of the benefit.

Marin Women

Teachers Sorority In Marin

Alpha Delta Kappa, international honorary sorority for women teachers, initiated the first Marin County chapter on March 14 in San Rafael.

Mrs. Dorothy Vaio of San Francisco, the state president of Alpha Delta Kappa, conducted the installation of officers for the new chapter, assisted by Mrs. Roberta Marcus of Tiburon who is on the state membership committee. Elected president of the chapter was Miss Florence Abraham, dean of girls at San Rafael High School.

This organization for outstanding women in education has chapters in each of the 50 states, as well as in Canada.

Plans for Marin County include the initiation of chapters in the San Anselmo-Fairfax areas, as well as the Mill Valley-Corte Madera districts.

Thomas P-TA Endorses School Tax Increase

Officers for the coming year were elected and installed by the Wade Thomas P-TA at last Thursday's general meeting.

They are Stephen McKee, president; Mrs. Roy Fairchild, vice president; Mrs. Marian Merritt, vice president; Mrs. H. M. McKinley, secretary; Leland Abramson, treasurer; James Cowperthwaite, auditor; Mrs. James Miller, historian.

A program of instrumental music was presented by students of Dale Parker, special music teacher in the San Anselmo elementary schools.

Following talks by Philip Smith of the San Anselmo School Board of Trustees and Frank Cassou, director of Business Services for the Tamalpais High School District, the membership unanimously approved a resolution endorsing the proposed San Anselmo school tax increase and the Tamalpais Union High School District bond issue, both of which are on the April 18 ballot.

Meatless Chop Suey Makes Speedy Entree

The family size cans of chop suey which are available at your grocer's today are grand for short cut Chinese dinners in Lent. The convenient 2 pound 2 ounce size yields six good servings, yet takes only five minutes to heat, thicken the stock and serve.

A meatless combination of bean sprouts, celery, onions, peppers and mushrooms is obtainable, which is delicious and filling. Home economists suggest that you add flaked canned tuna, crab or salmon to this chop suey for variation.

BUSINESS UNIT IS SET FOR HI FI

Familiar Marin County sounds, from the creaking of the boats mooring at Sausalito to jets taking off at Hamilton Air Force Base, will be heard when Hugh Turner, manager of KTIM presents the rogram at the dinner meeting of Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin County, Tuesday night, March 28 at Alta Mira in Sausalito.

Mr. Turner, who has entitled the program "Interesting Sounds and Music In High Fidelity," has incorporated many sounds identified with the occupations of the club members. Florence Donnelly, the club's public affairs chairman, is in charge of the program and Dorothy Gilchrist will arrange the decorations. Helen Krause, club president, says the dinner which begins at 7:30 will be preceded by a social hour.

Redwood High Style Show Set

The Parent-Teacher Association of Redwood High School will present its third annual dessert-fashion show, "Melody in Fashion," at 1 p.m. Saturday, May 13, in the school gymnasium, Larkspur.

Making this announcement today was Mrs. Henry E. Skinner of Ross, who has been appointed general chairman for the event by the P-TA president Mrs. William J. Ferguson of Belvedere.

The dessert-fashion show is the only fund-raising project staged by the organization during the year. The 1961 edition will benefit the fund to provide robes for the Redwood Choir.

The choir, composed of 50 Redwood girls and boys and directed by Arthur Wigell, will sing at the May 13 event. The choir also will appear in a special spring concert at 8 p.m. Saturday, April 15, in the school gym, with proceeds going to the robe fund.

Models in this year's fashion show will be twenty Redwood High School girls. A San Francisco store will cooperate in staging the parade of spring and summer fashions.

Girl Scouts Study India, Hold Party

Girl Scouts find satisfaction in a "job well done" when the projects and plans they have made materialize into a weekend trip, entertaining others, or, perhaps, just having a party.

A study of India was completed by Brownie Troop 260 when Mrs. Richard Ellefsen of Saratoga visited their meeting to show colored slides taken during a year's stay in India with her family. The San Rafael girls also made saris which Mrs. Ellefsen helped them put on, together with red tilaka dots on their foreheads. She presented each Brownie with an Indian glass bangle before she left. The girls also learned to cook Meeta Piliau (sweet rice) from an authentic recipe, which is eaten from banana leaves with the fingers, while sitting cross-legged on the floor. Their leader is Mrs. Robert Mertle.

A joint ice skating party was enjoyed by San Anselmo Troops 104 and 191 at Raydine's recently. With their leaders, Mesdames C. J. Kealey, James Turrini, Phillip Gilbert and Frank Palazanto, the Intermediate Scouts enjoyed an evening of skating (and sitting) on the ice! Their parents were also invited to attend.

Prizes for the winner at each table was a set of Japanese matches.

Mrs. Hislop's guests were Mesdames George Neuwald, Ervin Hille and Sam Busschaert.

Other hostesses with their guests were respectively Mesdames John Barnard and William Yockey; Paul Limont and Jack Kennedy; James Stephenson and Samuel Barber; Richard Evans and Robert Murphy; John Hurley and Robert Lane; Allen Toole and Len Bjorklund; and Paul Scheiner and Harry Jacobs.

PENELOPE ANDERSON TO WED MARK HOLBROOK ON JUNE 17

Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Anderson of Honolulu and Mill Valley have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage on June 17 of their daughter, Penelope Susan, to Mark Steven Holbrook.

Parents of the prospective bridegroom are M/Sgt. and Mrs. Earl W. Holbrook, now stationed with the U.S. Air Force at Spencer, Okla.

The young couple met at Roosevelt High School in Honolulu where both were graduated.

"Penny," as she is better known to friends, completed her education at the College of Marin and is employed at the Bank of America in Mill Valley. She has a younger brother, Donald Anderson Jr. Her maternal grandmother was the late Mrs. Marguerite Eischen of Larkspur, and her uncle, Charles Eischen of San Diego, was a former city editor of the Independent-Journal.

Her paternal grandmother is Mrs. Carl O. Anderson of Kingsburg, Calif.

Mark attends the University of Idaho, where he is majoring in history and mathematics and is a member of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity. After his graduation in June he will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army.

He has a younger brother, William Holbrook.

The couple will be married at the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour.

JUNE 17 has been selected as their wedding date by Penelope Susan Anderson and Mark Steven Holbrook, whose engagement has just been announced by parents of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Anderson of Mill Valley and Honolulu. (Photo by Planert)

GARDEN SOCIETY SPRING TOUR WILL FEATURE 6 MARIN HOMES

Six Marin homes will be on the agenda April 22 when the Garden Society of Marin sponsors its spring garden tour.

Gardens range from a Sausalito Japanese style to a contemporary garden featuring open deck and Marine view.

This is the first spring tour to be sponsored by the society, noted Mrs. Thomas P. Cusick of Kentfield, president of the garden group. In previous years, the society has presented summer and fall tours.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Beine of Ross are chairmen of the tour, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. LeRoi Dowdell, San Rafael, chairmen of the host committee; Eleanor Doll of Corte Madera, in charge of ticket sales, and Mrs. Walter A. Andersen, director of publicity. Tickets are available at the Marin Art and Garden Center, or may be obtained on the day of the tour or from Miss Doll.

Gardens in Sausalito, Greenbrae and four in San Rafael will be shown on the tour. The Garden Society is a sustaining member of the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

'Around World In 80 Dances' Folk Dance Festival Theme

"Around the World in 80 Dances" is the theme approved for the sixteenth annual folk dance festival to be held on Sunday, July 9. Leo Sullivan of Belveron Gardens, representing the Southern Marin Folk Dancers, presented the theme at the regular meeting of the Marin Dance Council, Inc. on Tuesday night.

President Bill D'Alvy of Mill Valley said that application has been made to the San Rafael High School for use of the football field in the afternoon and the gymnasium in the evening. Change of location for the dancing is necessary because the College of Marin gymnasium will not be available this year.

Mrs. Scott Tilden of San Rafael and her committee presented a program designed to include dances of all levels. Mixers, line dances and old favorites as well as some of the new dances introduced at the Workshop class have been selected.

Bob Dunstan of Belveron Gardens reported on the beginners class currently meeting at the Bel Aire School each Monday night. They will be holding their first party on Monday, March 27 and all dancers are invited to be their guests.

Mrs. Allyn Young of Corte Madera, mistress of ceremonies on the Council-sponsored "Folk Dance Festival of the Air" heard each Saturday morning at 9:30 on KTIM, announced that her guest on April 8 will be the foreign exchange student from Panama currently at San Rafael High School.

'Variety In Decor' Event To Have 24 Table Settings

Twenty-four table settings ranging from formal and international to an "eighth grade graduation party" will be arranged and displayed by the Northgate Group on April 19 at the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

Several formal dinner tables, informal dinner, barbecue, patio breakfast, brunch, lunch and tea displays, and tables representing Denmark, Germany, Italy, Japan and Hawaii will be included in the "Variety in Decor" event.

Unusual collections of china, crystal, silver and linen brought back to Marin homes by globe-trotting Northgate members will add to the beauty and glamor of the tables.

Committees under the direction of Mrs. Curtis S. Knowles of Kentfield and Mrs. Allen Zeiss of Ross are working enthusiastically for the occasion to be held in various buildings at the Center from 2 to 4 p.m.

Tea will be served to guests atending the event, a new one in the "Wednesday with Northgate" series at the Center.

Northgate members who have volunteered to "do" tables include Mesdames Frank C. Stratford, George B. Schirmer, David C. Dorward, Newton Longfellow, Andrew S. Halley, John F. Dowling, Jack L. Hunt, Carl E. Priest, Lloyd Richards, Arthur E. Simons, H. Wallace Hickman, Leon C. Smith, R. N. Pomeroy, David N. Plant, Edgar T. Lindner, E. J. Tickets for the exhibit and the tea may be purchased at the Octagon House at the Art and Garden Center.

Program chairmen who wish to reserve the 30-minute film may write Kenneth Foster, Executive Director, Goodwill Industries, 980 Howard Street, San Francisco. Two weeks should be allowed for mailing.

Plan Easter Menu From The Soup To The Mints

Your Easter dinner will be a lot more successful if you plan the entire menu down to the smallest detail.

Don't settle on the main course and an elegant dessert, assuming that the rest of the meal will somehow take care of itself. This is the surest way to becoming a harried hostess.

By planning the menu completely at one time you can consider complimentary flavors as well as the color scheme of the little extra tidbits that make a gala feast more appealing.

Following dessert for instance, you might wish to serve demitasse in the living room. To eliminate last minute fussing, be prepared to pass small dishes of after dinner mints and salted nuts at this time. It's the gracious way to cap a special dinner. You can, of course, select Richardson mints in pastel colors to harmonize with the general color theme of your Easter table.

Marin Toastmasters To Install Officers

Allison A. Jopson of San Rafael will be installed as president of Marin Toastmasters Club 890 at 7:15 p.m. Monday at the Woodlands restaurant in Kentfield.

Other officers to be installed are Del Preston of Mill Valley, educational vice president; L. R. McCreary of San Rafael, administrative vice president; George L. McCoy of Belvedere, secretary; Herbert Schuyten Jr. of San Rafael, sergeant-at-arms; Robert L. Olson of Larkspur, assistant sergeant-at-arms; Russell Perkins Jr. of Fairfax, treasurer. All will serve six-month terms.

Dress Up Leftovers This Spicy Way

There's a knack to serving leftover meats to make them just as inviting as the original. When you want to resort to elaborate disguises, the best strategy is to serve them with a spicy sauce.

There are many fine prepared sauces in your grocery store today which can make those meaty leftovers taste like new. One which contains ingredients that helped to make the Southwestern outdoor barbecue so famous is put out by the Gebhardt Mexican Foods people, makers of the well known chili powder.

Place slices of roast beef, meat loaf, chicken or weiners in an open pan. Cover with the Barbecue Sauce and heat in a 325 degree oven. Or simply warm the sauce through in a saucepan and serve it warm over meat slices. This is one key to giving zesty outdoor flavor to indoor cooked meats.

GARDEN SOCIETY SPRING TOUR WILL FEATURE 6 MARIN HOMES

Six Marin homes will be on the agenda April 22 when the Garden Society of Marin sponsors its spring garden tour.

Gardens range from a Sausalito Japanese style to a contemporary garden featuring open deck and Marine view.

This is the first spring tour to be sponsored by the society, noted Mrs. Thomas P. Cusick of Kentfield, president of the garden group. In previous years, the society has presented summer and fall tours.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Beine of Ross are chairmen of the tour, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. LeRoi Dowdell, San Rafael, chairmen of the host committee; Eleanor Doll of Corte Madera, in charge of ticket sales, and Mrs. Walter A. Andersen, director of publicity. Tickets are available at the Marin Art and Garden Center, or may be obtained on the day of the tour or from Miss Doll.

Gardens in Sausalito, Greenbrae and four in San Rafael will be shown on the tour. The Garden Society is a sustaining member of the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

'Around World In 80 Dances' Folk Dance Festival Theme

"Around the World in 80 Dances" is the theme approved for the sixteenth annual folk dance festival to be held on Sunday, July 9. Leo Sullivan of Belveron Gardens, representing the Southern Marin Folk Dancers, presented the theme at the regular meeting of the Marin Dance Council, Inc. on Tuesday night.

President Bill D'Alvy of Mill Valley said that application has been made to the San Rafael High School for use of the football field in the afternoon and the gymnasium in the evening. Change of location for the dancing is necessary because the College of Marin gymnasium will not be available this year.

Mrs. Scott Tilden of San Rafael and her committee presented a program designed to include dances of all levels. Mixers, line dances and old favorites as well as some of the new dances introduced at the Workshop class have been selected.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

We're Proud Of Interest Shown In Our Schools

For the first time in history, because of a newly passed state law, a majority of all school trustees in Marin County will be elected next month. All districts, except San Rafael, will hold elections April 18; San Rafael's is April 10.

It was not many years ago that candidates for school board vacancies were as scarce as hen's teeth. In many cases candidates had to be recruited; in others there were no candidates and trustees had to be appointed after the election.

Marin this year has more than 100 candidates for 73 seats. In one district, Tamalpais Union High School District, there are 10 candidates, three of them incumbents, for four vacancies. In another, San Rafael, there are seven candidates for three seats with no incumbents running. Fairfax, San Jose and Larkspur districts each have eight seeking school board seats.

Twelve of the 25 school districts electing, however, will not have contested elections. Neither will three of the four trustees areas of the County School Board. One district, Lincoln, on the Marin-Sonoma border, has only one candidate for two vacant seats.

This looks like a high per centage of school districts with not enough interest to provoke a contest. Yet we're not disheartened by this number. Just a few years ago the contested school board seat was the exception rather than the rule.

We are both pleased with and proud of the interest Marin citizens are taking in their schools. That there is controversy about them is good. That citizens are willing to get out and campaign for election to the school boards is even better.

Most of the districts which do not have contests are small, sparcely populated areas. But there are three or four which we are disappointed did not develop a contest. This isn't because we think the present boards aren't doing well; we just think that any public body does better when it doesn't get complacent.

Kentfield has only the incumbents running for re-election. San Anselmo has two incumbents and only one other candidate for three seats. Ross, which had five candidates at one time, dropped down to three and no contest when two of the incumbents withdrew.

We're particularly sorry about the one vacancy on the College of Marin board. Not that Kent O. Seymour hasn't done a fine job and deserves re-election. Our distress is because with no candidate filed against him, the issues facing the college today will not be discussed and debated. The college is making major changes at present; it faces a future of explosive growth. Certainly not everyone in the whole county feels the same about the college's future. Lack of a contest here is a loss to the people's understanding of what the college is trying to do.

But we're proud of the overall interest in our schools. We think more and more contests will develop as this interest expands. And we look forward to the day when there will be no school district in the county without a contest for trustee.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Why One Small Town Gets Excited

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

How can one small town, Belvedere, get so excited over 500 feet of real estate. And why is it that so many people who don't even live here are equally excited?

The answer is easy: The price of a view that may be lost forever to the entire Bay Area.

The citizens of Marin County have been awarded a national prize as the "All American City." This award speaks to all of us involved in this fray, for it acknowledges Marin's foresight in fighting to preserve her natural beauty.

It's a continuing fight. One of our most beautiful views may soon be boarded up behind sturdy apartment houses. Only an aroused citizenry can save this narrow strip of sea wall overlooking Belvedere Cove. Lapping at this thin beach, the Bay makes a glorious leap from there to San Francisco's shores. From nowhere else is the city so spectacularly displayed, framed as it is by Corinthian and Belvedere Islands.

It's simply incredible that anyone could feel this wasn't worth preserving, not only for ourselves, but all future generations. Marin received that All-American award because her people were willing to fight to protect that beauty.

At a city election next week, Belvedere citizens will be counted. A few, fists jammed tight in their pockets, will vote "yes" in favor of apartment houses. But a thundering "No" will state firmly that this is worth fighting for.

Following a successful election, the Cove Preservation Committee will immediately proceed with the solicitation of voluntary pledges, tax deductible to purchase 497 feet of beach-front property. The actual price is not yet determined, although it has reliably been appraised at $192,000.

Belvedere alone may not be able to raise the total amount. But when Belvedere, as a result of this election, is counted as solidly behind the election, interested citizens and groups from all of Marin, and everywhere throughout the Bay Area are eager to join us.

Belvedere must not fail to vote "No" unequivocally. It won't cost one red cent. Following the election, people everywhere will support this, not for Belvedere alone, but for the entire Bay Area.

No Agreement On Gas Prices

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Upon my return to the office from a business trip in the East, my attention was called to an article carrying the headline, "Area's Gasoline Price War Comes To Marin," which appeared in your March 14 issue, stating that "The independents, notably Wilshire, are disturbing the price agreement of the major oil companies."

This statement was attributed to Peter Kitchener, described in the article as an official of our company. Presumbaly the reference was to Hugh W. Kitchener, who is actually employed as a clerk in our marketing service department. Mr. Kitchener has told us of his conversation with one of your reporters, and denies making the statement quoted above, or anything like it.

He does recall being questioned whether other oil companies had reduced their gasoline prices, but he is positive there was no discussion about an agreement between such companies.

There is, of course, no such agreement, and we are a party to none. The actions we have taken in connection with the present price disturbances have resulted entirely from our own decisions. We have been motivated solely by the conditions presented in the intensely competitive retail gasoline market and not by a collusive understanding or agreement with anyone else.

Our purpose in writing to you is not to raise an issue or to demand corrective action of some sort, but merely to set the record straight by calling your attention to a reporting inaccuracy.

We are sure that in the light of the anti-trust implications of the statement quoted above, you will understand that we could not overlook this incident without offering an explanation of our position.

Not Members Of 'Sweet Adelines'

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In the interest of accurate news information in your paper, I would like to offer a correction to a story which appeared on March 15, 1961. This story was on the first page of the "Marin Women" section and was about the performance that evening of entertainment produced by Mrs. B. A. Sill of Corte Madera.

In listing the members of the revue, three vocalists were named and identified as "the Sweet Adelines." They are not members of the local chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., and have no connection with the name.

I'm sure the three women concerned are interested in their individual identities as they are accomplished singers and the international organization of Sweet Adelines respects this feeling. Also, the Sweet Adelines have established an identity and wish to maintain it. A correction of this misunderstanding by the writer of the story will be appreciated.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

DO SOMETHING FOR MIGRANTS

The next time you bite into a peach, munch on an apple or scoop up a spoonful of berries, give a thought to some of the people who harvest these foods—America's migratory workers.

Each year between two and three million migrants, including wives and children, travel from south to north following the crops. With some outstanding exceptions, they lack adequate housing, sanitary and drinking facilities and other basics for decent living.

Education for 600,000 children of these farm laborers is scanty. Perhaps 5,000 of them can be confident of a high school training.

It is easy to be critical of these conditions, to fix blame here or fix it there. But each person must ask himself, not "Why don't they do something?" but rather, "What can I do?"

The heart of Christ is especially receptive to the prayers of those who work for the basic human dignity of others. Do your part to help those in need.

"He that hath the substance of this world, and shall see his brother in need, and shall shut up his heart from him, how doth the charity of God abide in him?" (1 John 3:17)

Ever let me imitate You, O divine Master, in Your eternal and tireless compassion for the down-trodden.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Men Should Find Women's Secret For Longevity—Self-Confidence

NEW YORK (AP)—Well, boys, I've learned the secret of longevity.

If you want to live longer, here's the real inside tip: Treat yourself as a woman does herself — with respect and confidence.

Many men in this world kill themselves through boredom. Very few women do.

A woman enjoys an endless fascination in paying attention to herself. She physically and mentally enjoys spending hours fixing her toenails and her fingernails, in making rubber-mouth faces at herself in the mirror as she adjusts her lipstick or trims an errant eyebrow.

She stares into that mirror and what she sees is not a homely lump of feminine misfortune, a girdle-itchy lump of womanhood, but a fair and ravishing Cinderella, eager to be recognized by a rich prince.

It is this ability to kid themselves that makes many women able to outlive most men.

The daily need of shaving is what destroys a lot of men in their prime. They look in the mirror with a terrible sense of masculine honesty.

"Don't tell me that pot-bellied, bald monstrosity I see before me is the real me! Oh, no! Oh, no!"

And many of them expire right there on the bathroom floor, or become hopeless cripples of personal recognition. They give up.

The man who wants to last must be able to go into the bathroom in the morning, look at himself in the mirror, thump himself on a flabby stomach and say: "Well, Tarzan, the old jungle telegraph is beating out another breezy message for mankind."

He must be able to flex his scanty muscles approvingly and brood pleasantly over what the world heavyweight boxing picture might be if he wasn't 30 years too late to beat Jack Dempsey and 20 pounds too proud to pick on Floyd Patterson.

HE MUST, as he shaves, be able to say to himself in the mirror:

"The Lord save all impressionable women on this day. Oh, well, I'd better hurry or I'll miss the bus to work.

Tam District Board Gets National Praise In Library Publication

Tamalpais High School District trustees are given an intellectual pat on the back in the current issue of the nationally-circulated American Library Assn. Bulletin.

In an article, "Intellectual Freedom," Everett T. Moore reviews the recent attack on school library books, namely J. D. Salinger's "Catcher In The Rye" and John Steinbeck's "Of Mice And Men." Moore also inadvertently indicates that Marin County is a giant step ahead of such places as Tulsa, Okla., Louisville, Ky., and San Jose, a town south of San Francisco.

IN LOUISVILLE, a 10th grade English teacher was recently released for assigning "Catcher In The Rye" to his class.

In Tulsa, a teacher escaped dismissal, but the book was banned from the school library following a protest against it.

In San Jose, a high school removed the Salinger book from the supplementary reading list (along with several other volumes) and suspended the teacher who had compiled the list.

ALSO CITED in the article is San Rafael Unitarian minister Rev. Sam Wright, for his courage in praising "Catcher" as "one of the better aids in helping change the path of young men on the road to delinquency." (Moore also notes that Rev. Michael Barkowska, the Baptist minister who condemned the book, admitted he had read only excerpts from it.)

A frightening fact was revealed. The author of the piece told of a recent conference on censorship at which 60 teachers were asked if their school boards would back them up "in a crisis."

Only eight of them, Moore relates, were able to answer in the affirmative.

A happy thought came to light, however, when Moore said:

"Inelegance of language and a precociously earthy view of life . . . have apparently offended many adults who would rather their youngsters were given a blander diet.

"But their efforts to discourage interest in the book —which has delighted discerning teachers and perceptive students alike — have been running into difficulties censors usually encounter sooner or later: the book has become more popular than ever."

QUOTING THE principal of a Connecticut high school on his method of coping with pressure groups, Moore said the principal first made sure he had read the book in question and was able to explain why he felt it had literary merit.

The beleaguered principal then told the parents that it was alright with him if they did not want their children to read the book—but that his other students were going to.

"This method usually brings results, especially with status-seeking parents who want their children to be on a par with their peers," the principal reported.

MOORE NOTES that Holden Caulfield, late of Pencey Prep and hero of Salinger's novel, might find such snob appeal "very depressing."

"But teachers and librarians may manage to find some comfort in any effort to preserve their freedom of action.

"What will mean more to them in the long run," he concludes, "will be the kind of strong community support that was demonstrated by the school board in Marin County."

Angola Vote Is Symbol Of Judgment Based On Experience

WASHINGTON—In African affairs, two separate but parallel and similar and historical events took place last week. One was the refusal of the Commonwealth nations to condone the racial policy of apartheid in order to keep the Union of South Africa in the Commonwealth. The other was the vote of the United States, differing openly with its NATO allies, for an inquiry by the U.N. into the Portuguese colonial policy in Angola.

In botht cases the decision was a hard one to take.

There are some who think that the United States could have, and should have, avoided the decision. It could have abstained, that is it could have declined to vote, as it did under the Eisenhower administration last December.

BUT COULD the United States have done that now? Is abstention, a refusal to vote in order to evade a hard issue, a workable policy for a great power which holds the place we hold in the leadership of the non-Communist world?

The Eisenhower abstention of last December could at least be justified as a stop gap measure in the closing days of an administration. The new Kennedy administration could not take refuge in the evasion of an issue which involves the destiny of Africa and Asia and affects profoundly the peace of the world.

HAD WE ABSTAINED, we would have identified NATO with colonialism, and the Soviet Union would have stood out as the only great power in the white man's world which took the other side. What is more, we would have supported Portuguese colonialism not boldly by voting against the resolution, but timidly and apologetically by refusing to vote at all.

What an "image" that would have been of the "leadership" of the "free world"

The American view, which is not sufficiently understood in Europe, is that the liquidation of empires is always a great danger to the peace. The seed beds of the two world wars were in the liquidation of the Turkish, the Austro-Hungarian, and the Czarist empires.

In the American view the liquidation of the African empires, which is far from being completed, is in this age of nuclear armaments a great threat to peace.

OUR VIEW IS that if we and the Europeans are to achieve a constructive influence in African affairs, it can be done only through the medium of the United Nations. That is the only forum in which the old colonial powers, the newly liberated nations, the Soviet Union, and the United States can meet and deal with one another in the context of the law of the Charter.

Our European allies must not underestimate the weight and the seriousness of the American judgement in this affair. It is not inspired by a cheap attempt to win votes in Harlem. Nor is it, though it is often expressed in the noble old phrases, the naive liberal idealism of the old orators.

This judgment, of which the vote on Angola is a symbol, comes not from a soft but from a hard judgment based on two decades of responsibility for a worldwide coalition.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

We're Proud Of Interest Shown In Our Schools

For the first time in history, because of a newly passed state law, a majority of all school trustees in Marin County will be elected next month. All districts, except San Rafael, will hold elections April 18; San Rafael's is April 10.

It was not many years ago that candidates for school board vacancies were as scarce as hen's teeth. In many cases candidates had to be recruited; in others there were no candidates and trustees had to be appointed after the election.

Marin this year has more than 100 candidates for 73 seats. In one district, Tamalpais Union High School District, there are 10 candidates, three of them incumbents, for four vacancies. In another, San Rafael, there are seven candidates for three seats with no incumbents running. Fairfax, San Jose and Larkspur districts each have eight seeking school board seats.

Twelve of the 25 school districts electing, however, will not have contested elections. Neither will three of the four trustees areas of the County School Board. One district, Lincoln, on the Marin-Sonoma border, has only one candidate for two vacant seats.

This looks like a high per centage of school districts with not enough interest to provoke a contest. Yet we're not disheartened by this number. Just a few years ago the contested school board seat was the exception rather than the rule.

We are both pleased with and proud of the interest Marin citizens are taking in their schools. That there is controversy about them is good. That citizens are willing to get out and campaign for election to the school boards is even better.

Most of the districts which do not have contests are small, sparcely populated areas. But there are three or four which we are disappointed did not develop a contest. This isn't because we think the present boards aren't doing well; we just think that any public body does better when it doesn't get complacent.

Kentfield has only the incumbents running for re-election. San Anselmo has two incumbents and only one other candidate for three seats. Ross, which had five candidates at one time, dropped down to three and no contest when two of the incumbents withdrew.

We're particularly sorry about the one vacancy on the College of Marin board. Not that Kent O. Seymour hasn't done a fine job and deserves re-election. Our distress is because with no candidate filed against him, the issues facing the college today will not be discussed and debated. The college is making major changes at present; it faces a future of explosive growth. Certainly not everyone in the whole county feels the same about the college's future. Lack of a contest here is a loss to the people's understanding of what the college is trying to do.

But we're proud of the overall interest in our schools. We think more and more contests will develop as this interest expands. And we look forward to the day when there will be no school district in the county without a contest for trustee.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Why One Small Town Gets Excited

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

How can one small town, Belvedere, get so excited over 500 feet of real estate. And why is it that so many people who don't even live here are equally excited?

The answer is easy: The price of a view that may be lost forever to the entire Bay Area.

The citizens of Marin County have been awarded a national prize as the "All American City." This award speaks to all of us involved in this fray, for it acknowledges Marin's foresight in fighting to preserve her natural beauty.

It's a continuing fight. One of our most beautiful views may soon be boarded up behind sturdy apartment houses. Only an aroused citizenry can save this narrow strip of sea wall overlooking Belvedere Cove. Lapping at this thin beach, the Bay makes a glorious leap from there to San Francisco's shores. From nowhere else is the city so spectacularly displayed, framed as it is by Corinthian and Belvedere Islands.

It's simply incredible that anyone could feel this wasn't worth preserving, not only for ourselves, but all future generations. Marin received that All-American award because her people were willing to fight to protect that beauty.

At a city election next week, Belvedere citizens will be counted. A few, fists jammed tight in their pockets, will vote "yes" in favor of apartment houses. But a thundering "No" will state firmly that this is worth fighting for.

Following a successful election, the Cove Preservation Committee will immediately proceed with the solicitation of voluntary pledges, tax deductible to purchase 497 feet of beach-front property. The actual price is not yet determined, although it has reliably been appraised at $192,000.

Belvedere alone may not be able to raise the total amount. But when Belvedere, as a result of this election, is counted as solidly behind the election, interested citizens and groups from all of Marin, and everywhere throughout the Bay Area are eager to join us.

Belvedere must not fail to vote "No" unequivocally. It won't cost one red cent. Following the election, people everywhere will support this, not for Belvedere alone, but for the entire Bay Area.

No Agreement On Gas Prices

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Upon my return to the office from a business trip in the East, my attention was called to an article carrying the headline, "Area's Gasoline Price War Comes To Marin," which appeared in your March 14 issue, stating that "The independents, notably Wilshire, are disturbing the price agreement of the major oil companies."

This statement was attributed to Peter Kitchener, described in the article as an official of our company. Presumbaly the reference was to Hugh W. Kitchener, who is actually employed as a clerk in our marketing service department. Mr. Kitchener has told us of his conversation with one of your reporters, and denies making the statement quoted above, or anything like it.

He does recall being questioned whether other oil companies had reduced their gasoline prices, but he is positive there was no discussion about an agreement between such companies.

There is, of course, no such agreement, and we are a party to none. The actions we have taken in connection with the present price disturbances have resulted entirely from our own decisions. We have been motivated solely by the conditions presented in the intensely competitive retail gasoline market and not by a collusive understanding or agreement with anyone else.

Our purpose in writing to you is not to raise an issue or to demand corrective action of some sort, but merely to set the record straight by calling your attention to a reporting inaccuracy.

We are sure that in the light of the anti-trust implications of the statement quoted above, you will understand that we could not overlook this incident without offering an explanation of our position.

Not Members Of 'Sweet Adelines'

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In the interest of accurate news information in your paper, I would like to offer a correction to a story which appeared on March 15, 1961. This story was on the first page of the "Marin Women" section and was about the performance that evening of entertainment produced by Mrs. B. A. Sill of Corte Madera.

In listing the members of the revue, three vocalists were named and identified as "the Sweet Adelines." They are not members of the local chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., and have no connection with the name.

I'm sure the three women concerned are interested in their individual identities as they are accomplished singers and the international organization of Sweet Adelines respects this feeling. Also, the Sweet Adelines have established an identity and wish to maintain it. A correction of this misunderstanding by the writer of the story will be appreciated.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

DO SOMETHING FOR MIGRANTS

The next time you bite into a peach, munch on an apple or scoop up a spoonful of berries, give a thought to some of the people who harvest these foods—America's migratory workers.

Each year between two and three million migrants, including wives and children, travel from south to north following the crops. With some outstanding exceptions, they lack adequate housing, sanitary and drinking facilities and other basics for decent living.

Education for 600,000 children of these farm laborers is scanty. Perhaps 5,000 of them can be confident of a high school training.

It is easy to be critical of these conditions, to fix blame here or fix it there. But each person must ask himself, not "Why don't they do something?" but rather, "What can I do?"

The heart of Christ is especially receptive to the prayers of those who work for the basic human dignity of others. Do your part to help those in need.

"He that hath the substance of this world, and shall see his brother in need, and shall shut up his heart from him, how doth the charity of God abide in him?" (1 John 3:17)

Ever let me imitate You, O divine Master, in Your eternal and tireless compassion for the down-trodden.

Men Should Find Women's Secret For Longevity—Self-Confidence

NEW YORK (AP)—Well, boys, I've learned the secret of longevity.

If you want to live longer, here's the real inside tip: Treat yourself as a woman does herself — with respect and confidence.

Many men in this world kill themselves through boredom. Very few women do.

The difference is that men find themselves less exciting to themselves than women do to themselves.

A woman enjoys an endless fascination in paying attention to herself. She physically and mentally enjoys spending hours fixing her toenails and her fingernails, in making rubber-mouth faces at herself in the mirror as she adjusts her lipstick or trims an errant eyebrow.

She stares into that mirror and what she sees is not a homely lump of feminine misfortune, a girdle-itchy lump of womanhood, but a fair and ravishing Cinderella, eager to be recognized by a rich prince.

It is this ability to kid themselves that makes many women able to outlive most men.

The daily need of shaving is what destroys a lot of men in their prime. They look in the mirror with a terrible sense of masculine honesty.

"Don't tell me that pot-bellied, bald monstrosity I see before me is the real me! Oh, no! Oh, no!"

And many of them expire right there on the bathroom floor, or become hopeless cripples of personal recognition. They give up.

The man who wants to last must be able to go into the bathroom in the morning, look at himself in the mirror, thump himself on a flabby stomach and say: "Well, Tarzan, the old jungle telegraph is beating out another breezy message for mankind."

He must be able to flex his scanty muscles approvingly and brood pleasantly over what the world heavyweight boxing picture might be if he wasn't 30 years too late to beat Jack Dempsey and 20 pounds too proud to pick on Floyd Patterson.

HE MUST, as he shaves, be able to say to himself in the mirror:

"The Lord save all impressionable women on this day. Oh, well, I'd better hurry or I'll miss the bus to work.

"SO LONG FOR now you wonderful, wonderful fellow. See you tomorrow. Same time, same mirror."

It's this kind of self-approbation that keeps women alive so long. It could do the same thing for men.

MARIN FILM FARE

Story About Dogs, Pups Has Charm

By LES DARD

A reader's preview of this weekend's Marin film fare:

RAFAEL THEATER

Once upon a time there was a rich witch who hungered for a coat made of Dalmatian pelts. Her name: Cruella de Vil.

And there were two pure-bred Dalmatians, Pongo and Perdita, who produced a litter of 15 beautiful pups. Cruella sends a pair of dognapers after the 15, and they join 84 other puppies in captivity.

The dog world gets the news on the daily "twilight bark," and an "All Dog Alert" goes out. Mutts everywhere rally to rescue the 99 innocents from Cruella's Dalmatian Extermination Location, where the pups are artfully dodging execution.

This, basically, is the story of "101 Dalmatians," latest release from the Disney Buena Vista Studios, which goes on view Sunday on the San Rafael screen.

Disney, as usual, mixes plenty of whimsy with his horror, which is about enough to give the kids the shivers without keeping them up nights.

Estimate: Possibly the most charming, all-cartoon feature ever made by Disney.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Monsters that can destroy entire cities have been in short supply of late, but comes now MGM with "Gorgo," a made-in-Britain super-duper horror film that fills this vital cultural need.

In Technicolor, it opens Sunday on the San Anselmo screen.

Now believe it or not, this film is basically about mother love.

I mean how would you feel if your baby was carried off by two promoters and prepared for life in a circus? Well, if you were Gorgo's mother, you, too, would rise from the ocean deeps off the Irish coast and come charging after the little one.

Mama, it seems, is a mere 250 feet tall, and Gorgo a tiny 65 feet. And impervious to bombs and rockets.

Bill (Wee Geordie) Travers is the nice promoter and William Sylvester the nasty one. They are responsible for lifting Gorgo from the primeval muck and, as a consequence, causing the destruction of London.

Ah well, that's life.

MOTOR MOVIES

"A Hole in the Head" (color), a warm-hearted essay on what affection can be between a captivating youngster (Eddie Hodges) and his daddy (Frank Sinatra), is on show through tomorrow night.

Sinatra has been through a lifetime of unproductive promotions and as the film opens, is running a hotel, which he's about to lose. He finally swallows his pride and calls on his disapproving brother (Edward G. Robinson) and sister (Thelma Ritter) for help.

In addition, there's a dame (Carolyn Jones), who's a recklessly mad rowdy, and a rich widow (Eleanor Parker) whom Robinson has been trying to foist off on his brother.

The result: a "family" film.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

"Sayonara," one of the box office successes of 1958, is one of those rare cinematic dramas flowing with good will and kindness.

Based on James Michener's best seller, it's in color and Technirama and tells the story of the soldiers who married Orientals during the occupation of Japan and the Korean war.

The cast is headed by Marlon Brando as a stiffnecked officer whose reserve melts before the selfless devotion of Miiko Taka, a Japanese beauty. Red Buttons, who won an Oscar for his performance, is also in the cast.

The co-feature is the color film version of Shaw's "Doctor's Dilemma."

NOVATO THEATER

"North to Alaska" (CinemaScope, color) is a farce-melodrama which stars John Wayne, Stewart Granger, Ernie Kovacs and Fabian. It opens Sunday.

Basically a western set in the tundra, it spins a tale of two pals, Wayne and Granger. The latter sends Wayne north to pick up his girl (Capucine) and bring her home. The expected complications occur.

A beautifully executed bar brawl practically opens the film and pretty much sets the pace for the events that follow.

Comic Mickey Shaughnessy also is in the cast of this boisterous slugfest.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"Strangers When We Meet" (color, wide screen) is an account of how two people drift into an affair in a plush suburb.

The participants are Kirk Douglas, as an architect somewhat bored with his wife (Barbara Rush), and Kim Novak, a beauty wed to a rather cold fish.

Douglas is working on a house for an author (Ernie Kovacs), and as the home rises, so does romance. When the place is nearly finished it's time for a decision; Douglas can break up his home or wreck Miss Novak's dreams.

LARK THEATER

Archie Rice is a vulgar, cheap performer in a third rate music hall. He is larcenous, unfaithful and, again, vulgar. He is also part of playwright John Osborne's version of England; an old, ramshackle music hall where people without talent hold the stage while a stupefied public watches mindlessly.

This is the basis for "The Entertainer," held over on the Larkspur screen with Sir Laurence Olivier as Archie, Brenda de Bazie as his long-suffering wife and Joan Plowright (the new Mrs. Olivier) as his daughter.

The theme certainly isn't cheering, but the performances are something to cheer about.

Note: Olivier was nominated for an Oscar as "best actor" on the basis of his performance.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"The Wackiest Ship in the Army," which opens on Sunday in Mill Valley is a comedy (in color).

Jack Lemmon is the main source of the humor. He is commander of the USS Echo, a wreck which passes for a wartime ship. His assignment: to elude Japanese patrols and land an Aussie radioman behind enemy lines.

This otherwise difficult assignment is made humorous by the amateur crew, which hardly knows fore from aft.

Rescue Film Slated

A film on mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and a demonstration of equipment showing the oxygen benefit of this method will be shown at 8 p.m. Monday at the Santa Venetia Presbyterian Church, Adrian Way, under auspices of the women's organization of the church.

Woman Drunken Driver Jailed

A San Rafael woman paid a which followed Tuesday's reg- $263 fine and is serving a five-day jail sentence for her second drunken driving offense.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court sentenced Patricia Ann Tornell, 29, of 201-A Marin Street, for driving while intoxicated on Highway 101 near Lucky Drive last Nov. 8. She had a prior conviction in December, 1957. The judge gave her credit for one day she has already served in jail.

Norman Louis Haunstetter, 30, of 195 Melville Avenue, San Anselmo, also drew a $263 fine and five days in jail for his second conviction in two months.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson sentenced Haunstetter for driving while intoxicated on Fourth Street in San Rafael on Tuesday of last week. He had a prior conviction last month.

Judge Wilson sentenced two other drivers to $158 fines and six months probation for their first drunken driving offenses.

Robert M. Riddell, 41, of 112 Toyon Drive, Fairfax, and William Henry Hoskinson, 35, of 436 Calle De La Mesa, Novato, were both arrested last week. Riddell was caught on Cascade Drive in Fairfax last Saturday, and Hoskinson on Francisco Boulevard in San Rafael last Friday.

MARIN FILM FARE

Story About Dogs, Pups Has Charm

By LES DARD

A reader's preview of this weekend's Marin film fare:

RAFAEL THEATER

Once upon a time there was a rich witch who hungered for a coat made of Dalmatian pelts. Her name: Cruella de Vil.

And there were two pure-bred Dalmatians, Pongo and Perdita, who produced a litter of 15 beautiful pups. Cruella sends a pair of dognapers after the 15, and they join 84 other puppies in captivity.

The dog world gets the news on the daily "twilight bark," and an "All Dog Alert" goes out. Mutts everywhere rally to rescue the 99 innocents from Cruella's Dalmatian Extermination Location, where the pups are artfully dodging execution.

This, basically, is the story of "101 Dalmatians," latest release from the Disney Buena Vista Studios, which goes on view Sunday on the San Rafael screen.

Disney, as usual, mixes plenty of whimsy with his horror, which is about enough to give the kids the shivers without keeping them up nights.

Estimate: Possibly the most charming, all-cartoon feature ever made by Disney.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Monsters that can destroy entire cities have been in short supply of late, but comes now MGM with "Gorgo," a made-in-Britain super-duper horror film that fills this vital cultural need.

In Technicolor, it opens Sunday on the San Anselmo screen.

Now believe it or not, this film is basically about mother love.

I mean how would you feel if your baby was carried off by two promoters and prepared for life in a circus? Well, if you were Gorgo's mother, you, too, would rise from the ocean deeps off the Irish coast and come charging after the little one.

Mama, it seems, is a mere 250 feet tall, and Gorgo a tiny 65 feet. And impervious to bombs and rockets.

Bill (Wee Geordie) Travers is the nice promoter and William Sylvester the nasty one. They are responsible for lifting Gorgo from the primeval muck and, as a consequence, causing the destruction of London.

Ah well, that's life.

MOTOR MOVIES

"A Hole in the Head" (color), a warm-hearted essay on what affection can be between a captivating youngster (Eddie Hodges) and his daddy (Frank Sinatra), is on show through tomorrow night.

Sinatra has been through a lifetime of unproductive promotions and as the film opens, is running a hotel, which he's about to lose. He finally swallows his pride and calls on his disapproving brother (Edward G. Robinson) and sister (Thelma Ritter) for help.

In addition, there's a dame (Carolyn Jones), who's a recklessly mad rowdy, and a rich widow (Eleanor Parker) whom Robinson has been trying to foist off on his brother.

The result: a "family" film.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

"Sayonara," one of the box office successes of 1958, is one of those rare cinematic dramas flowing with good will and kindness.

Based on James Michener's best seller, it's in color and Technirama and tells the story of the soldiers who married Orientals during the occupation of Japan and the Korean war.

The cast is headed by Marlon Brando as a stiffnecked officer whose reserve melts before the selfless devotion of Miiko Taka, a Japanese beauty. Red Buttons, who won an Oscar for his performance, is also in the cast.

The co-feature is the color film version of Shaw's "Doctor's Dilemma."

NOVATO THEATER

"North to Alaska" (CinemaScope, color) is a farce-melodrama which stars John Wayne, Stewart Granger, Ernie Kovacs and Fabian. It opens Sunday.

Basically a western set in the tundra, it spins a tale of two pals, Wayne and Granger. The latter sends Wayne north to pick up his girl (Capucine) and bring her home. The expected complications occur.

A beautifully executed bar brawl practically opens the film and pretty much sets the pace for the events that follow.

Comic Mickey Shaughnessy also is in the cast of this boisterous slugfest.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"Strangers When We Meet" (color, wide screen) is an account of how two people drift into an affair in a plush suburb.

The participants are Kirk Douglas, as an architect somewhat bored with his wife (Barbara Rush), and Kim Novak, a beauty wed to a rather cold fish.

Douglas is working on a house for an author (Ernie Kovacs), and as the home rises, so does romance. When the place is nearly finished it's time for a decision; Douglas can break up his home or wreck Miss Novak's dreams.

LARK THEATER

Archie Rice is a vulgar, cheap performer in a third rate music hall. He is larcenous, unfaithful and, again, vulgar. He is also part of playwright John Osborne's version of England; an old, ramshackle music hall where people without talent hold the stage while a stupefied public watches mindlessly.

This is the basis for "The Entertainer," held over on the Larkspur screen with Sir Laurence Olivier as Archie, Brenda de Bazie as his long-suffering wife and Joan Plowright (the new Mrs. Olivier) as his daughter.

The theme certainly isn't cheering, but the performances are something to cheer about.

Note: Olivier was nominated for an Oscar as "best actor" on the basis of his performance.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"The Wackiest Ship in the Army," which opens on Sunday in Mill Valley is a comedy (in color).

Jack Lemmon is the main source of the humor. He is commander of the USS Echo, a wreck which passes for a wartime ship. His assignment: to elude Japanese patrols and land an Aussie radioman behind enemy lines.

This otherwise difficult assignment is made humorous by the amateur crew, which hardly knows fore from aft.

The star gets help from Ricky Nelson as his straight man.

Rescue Film Slated

A film on mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and a demonstration of equipment showing the oxygen benefit of this method will be shown at 8 p.m. Monday at the Santa Venetia Presbyterian Church, Adrian Way, under auspices of the women's organization of the church.

Woman Drunken Driver Jailed

A San Rafael woman paid a which followed Tuesday's reg- $263 fine and is serving a five-day jail sentence for her second drunken driving offense.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court sentenced Patricia Ann Tornell, 29, of 201-A Marin Street, for driving while intoxicated on Highway 101 near Lucky Drive last Nov. 8. She had a prior conviction in December, 1957. The judge gave her credit for one day she has already served in jail.

Norman Louis Haunstetter, 30, of 195 Melville Avenue, San Anselmo, also drew a $263 fine and five days in jail for his second conviction in two months.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson sentenced Haunstetter for driving while intoxicated on Fourth Street in San Rafael on Tuesday of last week. He had a prior conviction last month.

Judge Wilson sentenced two other drivers to $158 fines and six months probation for their first drunken driving offenses.

Robert M. Riddell, 41, of 112 Toyon Drive, Fairfax, and William Henry Hoskinson, 35, of 436 Calle De La Mesa, Novato, were both arrested last week. Riddell was caught on Cascade Drive in Fairfax last Saturday, and Hoskinson on Francisco Boulevard in San Rafael last Friday.

Marin Art Works Due At State Fair

Art works by Marin County artists will be among the more than 350 pieces to be shown at the unveiling of the California State Fair and Exposition permanent art collection.

Valued at over $85,000, the collection will be shown as part of California's Spring Festival from April 15 to 23 at the State Fair Grounds in Sacramento. The Festival is sponsored jointly by the State Fair and the Sacramento County Fair.

The collection represents the purchase awards made since 1948 at State Fair art competitions.

Marin County artists and the media and the purchase award years are as follows:

Weaving—Valborg Gravander or Mill Mill Valley, 1951; and Rosalind Ray Watkin and Ramona Germeshausen of San Anselmo, 1954.

Ceramics and enameling—Jean Varda of Sausalito, 1951; and Bernice Brown of San Anselmo, 1957.

Science Teacher Due Study Leave

Sir Francis Drake High School chemistry teacher and science department head Keith MacNab of 10 Morningside Drive, San Anselmo, will take a year's leave of absence next school year to devote full time to the chemistry education materials study, Principal Harold Allison announced today.

MacNab will help teachers planning to teach the study's new chemistry course next year throughout California. This new curriculum for secondary schools has recently been devised under the direction of Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Glenn Seaborg. MacNab is one of the planners.

MacNab will also "check the movies the study will make to see if they are scientifically accurate and not just Hollywood gobbledygook."

Carlisle To Take Part In Conference

Chester G. Carlisle, superintendent of the Tamalpais Union High School District, is one of 35 superintendents in the United States to be invited to take part in the 20th annual superintendents' work conference at Columbia University in New York.

The conference, scheduled for July 3 to July 21, will feature an "examination of major forces in our society affecting public opinion in this decade," according to chairman Norton L. Beach.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Minor Child Subject To Same Regulations

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

A minor child is subject to the same rules as anyone else and must file a tax return if his income is over $600 ($400 if self-employed).

Peter J. Wikel

A minor is taxed on his income even though his parent may actually receive the money. A minor's income is not included in the tax return of his parent.

A minor child is allowed a personal exemption of $600 on his own return.

If your child is under 19 or is a student you may also claim an exemption for him if you furnished more than half of his support, even though he earns over $600.

You may not claim an exemption for him under any condition if he is married and files a joint return with his wife.

A minor may be entitled to a refund if income tax was withheld from his wages and should file a tax return to get it.

If your child works for you, you can deduct reasonable wages you paid to him for services he rendered in your business. You can deduct these payments even though your child uses the money to purchase his own clothing or other necessities which you are normally obligated to furnish him, and even though you may be entitled to his services.

However, you can not deduct the cost of meals and lodging furnished the child. The child must report the wages in his income tax return.

In determining whether you may claim your child as a dependent, you have not provided support to the extent that the child's wages are used for his support, even though you may have paid them to the child.

If a child is unable (for any reason) to file a return, the parent, guardian, or other person charged fith the care of the child must file it for him.

If a minor's tax is not paid, the amount attributable to compensation paid the child for his services is due and payable by the parent.

Named To Posts

Rufus Rhoades of San Rafael and Mrs. John B. Ehlen of Sausalito have been named chairman and vice-chairman of the College of Marin citizens advisory committee. They were incorrectly reported by the Independent-Journal on Wednesday as having been named to a survey subcommittee.

Marin Art Works Due At State Fair

Art works by Marin County artists will be among the more than 350 pieces to be shown at the unveiling of the California State Fair and Exposition permanent art collection.

Valued at over $85,000, the collection will be shown as part of California's Spring Festival from April 15 to 23 at the State Fair Grounds in Sacramento. The Festival is sponsored jointly by the State Fair and the Sacramento County Fair.

The collection represents the purchase awards made since 1948 at State Fair art competitions.

Marin County artists and the media and the purchase award years are as follows:

Weaving—Valborg Gravander or Mill Mill Valley, 1951; and Rosalind Ray Watkin and Ramona Germeshausen of San Anselmo, 1954.

Ceramics and enameling—Jean Varda of Sausalito, 1951; and Bernice Brown of San Anselmo, 1957.

Science Teacher Due Study Leave

Sir Francis Drake High School chemistry teacher and science department head Keith MacNab of 10 Morningside Drive, San Anselmo, will take a year's leave of absence next school year to devote full time to the chemistry education materials study, Principal Harold Allison announced today.

MacNab will help teachers planning to teach the study's new chemistry course next year throughout California. This new curriculum for secondary schools has recently been devised under the direction of Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Glenn Seaborg. MacNab is one of the planners.

MacNab will also "check the movies the study will make to see if they are scientifically accurate and not just Hollywood gobbledygook."

Carlisle To Take Part In Conference

Chester G. Carlisle, superintendent of the Tamalpais Union High School District, is one of 35 superintendents in the United States to be invited to take part in the 20th annual superintendents' work conference at Columbia University in New York.

The conference, scheduled for July 3 to July 21, will feature an "examination of major forces in our society affecting public opinion in this decade," according to chairman Norton L. Beach.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Minor Child Subject To Same Regulations

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

A minor child is subject to the same rules as anyone else and must file a tax return if his income is over $600 ($400 if self-employed).

Peter J. Wikel

A minor is taxed on his income even though his parent may actually receive the money. A minor's income is not included in the tax return of his parent.

A minor child is allowed a personal exemption of $600 on his own return.

If your child is under 19 or is a student you may also claim an exemption for him if you furnished more than half of his support, even though he earns over $600.

You may not claim an exemption for him under any condition if he is married and files a joint return with his wife.

A minor may be entitled to a refund if income tax was withheld from his wages and should file a tax return to get it.

If your child works for you, you can deduct reasonable wages you paid to him for services he rendered in your business. You can deduct these payments even though your child uses the money to purchase his own clothing or other necessities which you are normally obligated to furnish him, and even though you may be entitled to his services.

However, you can not deduct the cost of meals and lodging furnished the child. The child must report the wages in his income tax return.

In determining whether you may claim your child as a dependent, you have not provided support to the extent that the child's wages are used for his support, even though you may have paid them to the child.

If a child is unable (for any reason) to file a return, the parent, guardian, or other person charged fith the care of the child must file it for him.

If a minor's tax is not paid, the amount attributable to compensation paid the child for his services is due and payable by the parent.

Six Candidates Competing For Positions On Dixie Board

(This is the third of a series of stories on candidates for school boards in Marin County in the April 18 elections.)

Six candidates will be vying for three positions on the Dixie Elementary School District board when voters go to the polls on April 18.

It will be the second school board election in eight days for Dixie voters. Because their elementary school district is a part of San Rafael High School District, they will vote April 10 on candidates for two vacancies on the San Rafael Board of Education.

Dixie, fastest growing school district in Marin, also will have a proposal on the April 18 ballot for authority to borrow up to four million dollars from the state to build three new schools and additions to four others. This requires two-thirds approval for passage.

Two of the six candidates are incumbents seeking new four-year terms. The other four seek membership on the Dixie board for the first time.

Incumbents are Mrs. Dorothy C. Brown, now completing four years on the board, and Robert S. Winniford, who is now serving by appointment. The other candidates are John R. Christofferson, Lawrence I. Kramer Jr., Charles H. Roach and John A. Starkweather. E. E. Lenander, whose term also expires this year, is retiring after 50 years as school teacher, principal, superintendent and trustee in Minnesota and Marin. He is the present chairman of the board.

Here is a rundown on the candidates:

DOROTHY C. BROWN, wife of Rulon E. Brown, division manager for General Motors' Frigidaire Division, resides at 1069 Las Gallinas Avenue in Terra Linda. She has a son, Craig, in San Rafael High School and a daughter, Bonnie, in the eighth grade of Vallecito School.

Mrs. Brown was appointed to the Dixie board in July, 1957, and elected for a three-year term the following year. She is now in her second year as treasurer of the Marin County School Boards Assn. She has served on the board of the Marin County Young Women's Christian Assn., has been active five years in the Camp Fire Girls and is active also in Parent-Teacher Assn. work. She has resided in Terra Linda since 1954, and previously lived in San Francisco. She was born in St. Peters, Mont.

"A continued, sincere interest in children and the progressive growth of our school district have led me to the decision of seeking another term," said Mrs. Brown. "I believe that because of the four years previous service, I can more effectively serve the Dixie School District."

ROBERT S. WINNIFORD, 39, of 561 Kernberry Drive, Lucas Valley, is a research chemist with California Research Corp., a Standard Oil subsidiary, filling out a term on the Dixie board by appointment. He was appointed last September.

He and his wife, Georgeanne, have a son and three daughters.

Winniford was born in Portland, Ore. He holds a B.S. degree from Oregon State College, M.S. from California Institute of Technology and Ph.D. from University of Tennessee. He taught chemistry for two years at University of Tennessee.

Winniford, who has lived three years in Lucas Valley, has been active in the Marinwood Home and School Club, the Dixie School District Coordinating Council and in the Church of the Nativity (Episcopal). He is a member of the Marin County Committee on School District Organization.

He entered World War II as an Air Force enlisted man and after attending officer candidate school served in the Chemical Warfare Service and for a year with the Office of Strategic Services in China.

JOHN R. CHRISTOFFERSON, 41, lives at 12 Del Haro Way, which is within San Rafael. He is a civil engineer with International Engineering Co. of San Francisco. He moved to his present home a year ago from Mill Valley.

Christofferson and his wife, Esther, have three daughters, the eldest 6 years old.

He is a graduate of Seattle University and is a major in the Army Reserve. He served as a captain in the Philippines in World War II and in Japan during the Korean War. He is a member of the Dixie School District Citizen Advisory Committee.

LAWRENCE I. KRAMER JR. is executive director of the San Francisco Heart Assn. He and his wife, Sue, and four children live at 558 Heather Way, Terra Linda.

Kramer was born in New York and holds an A.B. degree from Antoch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio, and an M.A. from Harvard University. He is a fellow of the American Council of Learned Societies.

Active in Boy Scouting, Kramer is a member of the Order of the Arrow. He is an executive committee member of the health council of the United Community Fund of San Francisco, vice president of the San Francisco chapter of the National Rehabilitation Assn. and a member of the Commonwealth Club. Local membership is in the Rafael Racquet Club.

He was a staff sergeant in the Army Medical Department in World War II, seeing service in the Philippines.

Kramer's platform calls for "improving cooperation and understanding between school board and community, achieving highest educational standards and strengthening personnel practices." Specifically, he calls for publication of school board meeting agendas, quarterly board meetings with parent groups, improving library facilities and "more thorough knowledge and discussion of individual personnel reports."

DOROTHY C. BROWN

ROBERT S. WINNIFORD

LAWRENCE I. KRAMER JR.

CHARLES H. ROACH, 34, resides at 613 Idylberry Road in Lucas Valley. He and his wife, Joan, have a son and daughter attending Lucas Valley School.

Roach is assistant advertising manager of Crown-Zellerbach Corp. in San Francisco and formerly was with a San Francisco advertising agency. He was born in New York and educated in parochial schools there and at University of San Francisco, from which he holds a B.S. degree in English plus post-graduate study in law. He is a member of the University of San Francisco Alumni executive committee.

During World War II, Roach served in the Coast Guard.

JOHN A. STARKWEATHER, 35, is a Terra Linda resident at 612 Las Collindas Road. He is assistant professor of medical psychology at University of California School of Medicine, attending psychologist at Langley Porter Institute, a research specialist with the California Department of Mental Hygiene and is directing research in vocal communication under a U. S. Public Health Service grant.

Starkweather and his wife, Jean, have three sons.

The candidate was born in Detroit. He attended the Coast Guard Academy and University of Washington before receiving an A.B. degree from Yale University. He holds an M.A. and Ph. D. from Northwestern University. Besides numerous professional affiliations, he is active in the Parent-Teacher Assn. and the Dixie School District Citizen Advisory Committee. He served in the Coast Guard in World War II as a radio technician.

"As a teacher in higher education, I am impressed with the importance of early educational experiences which determine the choices available to students later on," said Starkweather. "I believe my close view of the demands on students who continue into advanced education will be useful as a school board member."

JOHN A. STARKWEATHER

CONCERN OVER YOUTH

West Marin Slates Recreation Discussion

What can be done to improve the recreation opportunities for youth in West Marin is to be discussed at a public meeting at 7:30 p.m. April 20 in the Bolinas Community Center.

Many well-known Marin County people have accepted invitations to attend and give their views, announced Mrs. Ellen Dawson of Stinson Beach, who is arranging the meeting.

Richard Miller, Bolinas Schools principal, will be chairman.

One subject sure to be discussed is that of school bus service, said Mrs. Dawson. Residents have expressed desire for a late afternoon Tamalpais High School bus so students who want to participate in athletics or in band can have transportation home. Others have asked for a shuttle bus to pick up high school students and take them to school functions in the evening, such as plays or dances.

Among those who will participate, said Mrs. Dawson, are Judge N. Charles Brusatori; state Sen. John F. McCarthy; Supervisors William D. Fusselman and George Ludy; Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos; Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety; Richard L. Campion, principal of Tamalpais High School; Frank A. Cassou, business director of tricts; Dr. Richard Hinze, assistant superintendent of Marin County Schools; Walter Busher, head of the probation department; Leland H. Jordan, former county counsel; Marvin W. Brigam, county director of public works; Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, and Capt. Theodore F. Parnow of the California Highway Patrol.

Look into a Jaguar's mouth and see what makes it roar!

BENEATH the hood of the Jaguar 3.8 five-passenger sedan breathes true high performance.

But why put such power in a luxury sedan, when speed alone is not an end unto itself? Sound British logic dictates that an engine capable of an honest 120 miles an hour will be barely idling at half the speed. This means the 3.8 is hardly affected, much less taxed, by the demands of everyday driving.

The 3.8's other features reflect this same automotive common sense. The brakes are brakes as brakes should be. Power-assisted Dunlop discs, they are sure, safe, and stop the car smoothly without pitch or sway. Power steering and automatic transmission on the 3.8 are quick and responsive, and suspension is unbelievably efficient—keeping the 3.8 on an even keel under all driving conditions.

The Jaguar 3.8 Sedan is clearly a motor car meant to be driven. We respectfully suggest you do just that.

Six Candidates Competing For Positions On Dixie Board

(This is the third of a series of stories on candidates for school boards in Marin County in the April 18 elections.)

Six candidates will be vying for three positions on the Dixie Elementary School District board when voters go to the polls on April 18.

It will be the second school board election in eight days for Dixie voters. Because their elementary school district is a part of San Rafael High School District, they will vote April 10 on candidates for two vacancies on the San Rafael Board of Education.

Dixie, fastest growing school district in Marin, also will have a proposal on the April 18 ballot for authority to borrow up to four million dollars from the state to build three new schools and additions to four others. This requires two-thirds approval for passage.

Two of the six candidates are incumbents seeking new four-year terms. The other four seek membership on the Dixie board for the first time.

Incumbents are Mrs. Dorothy C. Brown, now completing four years on the board, and Robert S. Winniford, who is now serving by appointment. The other candidates are John R. Christofferson, Lawrence I. Kramer Jr., Charles H. Roach and John A. Starkweather. E. E. Lenander, whose term also expires this year, is retiring after 50 years as school teacher, principal, superintendent and trustee in Minnesota and Marin. He is the present chairman of the board.

Here is a rundown on the candidates:

DOROTHY C. BROWN, wife of Rulon E. Brown, division manager for General Motors' Frigidaire Division, resides at 1069 Las Gallinas Avenue in Terra Linda. She has a son, Craig, in San Rafael High School and a daughter, Bonnie, in the eighth grade of Vallecito School.

Mrs. Brown was appointed to the Dixie board in July, 1957, and elected for a three-year term the following year. She is now in her second year as treasurer of the Marin County School Boards Assn. She has served on the board of the Marin County Young Women's Christian Assn., has been active five years in the Camp Fire Girls and is active also in Parent-Teacher Assn. work. She has resided in Terra Linda since 1954, and previously lived in San Francisco. She was born in St. Peters, Mont.

"A continued, sincere interest in children and the progressive growth of our school district have led me to the decision of seeking another term," said Mrs. Brown. "I believe that because of the four years previous service, I can more effectively serve the Dixie School District."

ROBERT S. WINNIFORD, 39, of 561 Kernberry Drive, Lucas Valley, is a research chemist with California Research Corp., a Standard Oil subsidiary, filling out a term on the Dixie board by appointment. He was appointed last September.

He and his wife, Georgeanne, have a son and three daughters.

Winniford was born in Portland, Ore. He holds a B.S. degree from Oregon State College, M.S. from California Institute of Technology and Ph.D. from University of Tennessee. He taught chemistry for two years at University of Tennessee.

Winniford, who has lived three years in Lucas Valley, has been active in the Marinwood Home and School Club, the Dixie School District Coordinating Council and in the Church of the Nativity (Episcopal). He is a member of the Marin County Committee on School District Organization.

He entered World War II as an Air Force enlisted man and after attending officer candidate school served in the Chemical Warfare Service and for a year with the Office of Strategic Services in China.

JOHN R. CHRISTOFFERSON, 41, lives at 12 Del Haro Way, which is within San Rafael. He is a civil engineer with International Engineering Co. of San Francisco. He moved to his present home a year ago from Mill Valley.

Christofferson and his wife, Esther, have three daughters, the eldest 6 years old.

He is a graduate of Seattle University and is a major in the Army Reserve. He served as a captain in the Philippines in World War II and in Japan during the Korean War. He is a member of the Dixie School District Citizen Advisory Committee.

LAWRENCE I. KRAMER JR. is executive director of the San Francisco Heart Assn. He and his wife, Sue, and four children live at 558 Heather Way, Terra Linda.

Kramer was born in New York and holds an A.B. degree from Antoch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio, and an M.A. from Harvard University. He is a fellow of the American Council of Learned Societies.

Active in Boy Scouting, Kramer is a member of the Order of the Arrow. He is an executive committee member of the health council of the United Community Fund of San Francisco, vice president of the San Francisco chapter of the National Rehabilitation Assn. and a member of the Commonwealth Club. Local membership is in the Rafael Racquet Club.

He was a staff sergeant in the Army Medical Department in World War II, seeing service in the Philippines.

Kramer's platform calls for "improving cooperation and understanding between school board and community, achieving highest educational standards and strengthening personnel practices." Specifically, he calls for publication of school board meeting agendas, quarterly board meetings with parent groups, improving library facilities and "more thorough knowledge and discussion of individual personnel reports."

DOROTHY C. BROWN

ROBERT S. WINNIFORD

LAWRENCE I. KRAMER JR.

CHARLES H. ROACH, 34, resides at 613 Idylberry Road in Lucas Valley. He and his wife, Joan, have a son and daughter attending Lucas Valley School.

Roach is assistant advertising manager of Crown-Zellerbach Corp. in San Francisco and formerly was with a San Francisco advertising agency. He was born in New York and educated in parochial schools there and at University of San Francisco, from which he holds a B.S. degree in English plus post-graduate study in law. He is a member of the University of San Francisco Alumni executive committee.

During World War II, Roach served in the Coast Guard.

JOHN A. STARKWEATHER, 35, is a Terra Linda resident at 612 Las Collindas Road. He is assistant professor of medical psychology at University of California School of Medicine, attending psychologist at Langley Porter Institute, a research specialist with the California Department of Mental Hygiene and is directing research in vocal communication under a U. S. Public Health Service grant.

Starkweather and his wife, Jean, have three sons.

The candidate was born in Detroit. He attended the Coast Guard Academy and University of Washington before receiving an A.B. degree from Yale University. He holds an M.A. and Ph. D. from Northwestern University. Besides numerous professional affiliations, he is active in the Parent-Teacher Assn. and the Dixie School District Citizen Advisory Committee. He served in the Coast Guard in World War II as a radio technician.

JOHN A. STARKWEATHER

"As a teacher in higher education, I am impressed with the importance of early educational experiences which determine the choices available to students later on," said Starkweather. "I believe my close view of the demands on students who continue into advanced education will be useful as a school board member."

CONCERN OVER YOUTH

West Marin Slates Recreation Discussion

What can be done to improve the recreation opportunities for youth in West Marin is to be discussed at a public meeting at 7:30 p.m. April 20 in the Bolinas Community Center.

Many well-known Marin County people have accepted invitations to attend and give their views, announced Mrs. Ellen Dawson of Stinson Beach, who is arranging the meeting.

Richard Miller, Bolinas Schools principal, will be chairman.

One subject sure to be discussed is that of school bus service, said Mrs. Dawson. Residents have expressed desire for a late afternoon Tamalpais High School bus so students who want to participate in athletics or in band can have transportation home. Others have asked for a shuttle bus to pick up high school students and take them to school functions in the evening, such as plays or dances.

Among those who will participate, said Mrs. Dawson, are Judge N. Charles Brusatori; state Sen. John F. McCarthy; Supervisors William D. Fusselman and George Ludy; Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos; Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety; Richard L. Campion, principal of Tamalpais High School; Frank A. Cassou, business director of tricts; Dr. Richard Hinze, assistant superintendent of Marin County Schools; Walter Busher, head of the probation department; Leland H. Jordan, former county counsel; Marvin W. Brigam, county director of public works; Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, and Capt. Theodore F. Parnow of the California Highway Patrol.
